IS DIVINE REVELATION CONTINUING?
Our readers know our foundation of spiritual belief to be the Urantia Papers, explored abundantly in our first seven issues. By giving humankind the Fifth Epochal Revelation, we believe the celestially-delivered papers to be one of the most important examples of celestial contact in history. In this issue, we bring you an umbrella of others who are proclaiming Celestial Contact at 2000. They share their messages and we invite your comparisons, both to themselves, and to the Urantia Papers, as we fulfill our mission to “Explore the Spiritual Universe.” Hope you enjoy. Jim

We are an independent publication dedicated to the educational and entertaining exploration of planetary faiths, religions, and spiritual movements, especially in their relationships to each other, and to the current evolutionary changes on the Earth and in its societies. Opinions of writers are not necessarily those of the publisher. In fact, we encourage respectful but candid debate of cutting edge spiritual issues and welcome your submissions and letters of reply. The Journal officially believes in the Urantia Papers as a foundation of spiritual truth, but not the only source. Truth can be most readily found through a close personal relationship with God but can also be found in other inspired works, even in the next person you meet.

MAJOR EXPLORATION: Celestial Contact at 2000

by JIM CLEVELAND

Humankind's history is filled with episodes of Celestial Contact. Communication with spiritual sources has transformed and inspired humans through all the centuries, even as each age has had its scoffers. Sometimes these were people who simply preferred their own channelings of another time, now set to dogma.

The wiser among us have surmised that celestial communication is indeed real and also personal and has nothing to do with religious organizations, other than the replete and resplendent "organization" that comprises our biological, spiritual and mindal being.

Many have also learned that celestial contact is an ongoing phenomenon of history. It really does happen in all ages, and each revelation helps weave the layer of tapestry that makes up the human experience — even while respecting our free wills.

Through the ages, there have been a few humans who could go into the Stillness and the Light and bring forth spiritual insights. As we cross millenniums, these energies are now higher for more people to make this contact than at any time in human history. It is yours, everyone's for the striving.

We focus this issue on some of today's most visible movements, as we reach the year 2000 and go forward. We showcase the views of those who claim to have celestial contact and they present their information forthrightly. We can sample them together in L&L8 like a big spiritual smorgasbord stew .... and see if the ingredients blend tastefully.

I wonder if we will find .... that there is indeed a synchronicity and interlocking in these movements because of a simple reality.

The universe is a busy place, with many personalities and perspectives, just like our small planet, our small part of it, which is a pattern of the whole universe. As each of these movements proclaim today, this planet is truly being reclaimed to the Light Forces, the power of God. And we all can help make it so, growing ourselves in the quest. Such opportunity! Epochal-changing, quickening, pivotal times.

Of course, these organizations use different terminologies, and their own unique ideas. We don't expect Commander Ashtar to have exactly the same take on things as Abraham or Machiventa Melchizedek, but it is part of God's vast and divine plan that we each have our own ascendant layers of perspective as time and experience pass through us. This is true, not just for humans but for the overall celestial administration of personalities.

In other words, there are huge numbers of personalities, planets and perspectives involved here — room enough for everybody who wants to lend a hand to these exciting times of change on this amazing planet. They all make their own unique contributions to the tasty spiritual stew that the Teaching Mission teachers have called "The Correcting Time" on our planet.

Hope you enjoy the collection as we explore the spiritual universe with you. We are also interested in your letters or email to the Journal. What are your views on this plethora of celestial missions? After your explorations, let's visit again in the Explorer Endnotes ....

Exploring the history and plausibility of celestial communications

by Gerdean

Porshunta* is the name of an oracle who lived some 300,000 years ago, bridging the gap between this world and the next. In teaching truths about “The Great Teacher,” Porshunta did much to bring enlightenment and encouragement to the souls of that time. If our world was the recipient of messages from the netherworld at that far distant time in our planetary history, imagine how many there are today and how many there have been in the intervening millennia! (* pp 513 and 724, Urantia Book)

And yet so many in our world continue to be fearful of the very concept of engaging in communications with our celestial friends and neighbors. Of course, the intent to keep “the evil one(s)” behind us is a large part of this reluctance to open our minds to that which cannot be literally seen with our material eyes, but sadly, such focus on evil simultaneously closes out the possibility of the incredible good that can be found in seeking counsel from those higher up in the universal hierarchy.

Spiritual contact means different things to different people. On the surface, it relates to science fiction. To some, it conjures up a mental picture of crystal balls and charlatans who prey upon the emotions of humanity, who earn their living by deception in allegedly contacting the dead and conveying messages of comfort to their grieving kith and kin. To some, it means prayer and meditation with none other than the Living God. To many, it represents an endless array of cosmic personalities who seek to bring the worlds of time and space into an awareness that we are not alone in the universe, that we are loved, and that there is purpose to our lives.

SCIENCE FICTION

An initial glimpse of what science fiction contributes to understanding life in the universe and our relationship to it, is portrayed in the movie “Close Encounters of the Third Kind” by Steven Spielberg. The scene where the spectators are all looking up, their eyes wide, their mouths agape, in awe of the magnificent space ship hovering over their humble heads, is no less than a portrayal of worship!

The very word “Contact” calls to mind the recent film by that name with Jodie Foster, and based on the novel by Carl Sagan. In it, astronomers vie for the opportunity to travel into the far reaches of outer space in an attempt to make contact with what they believe to be intelligent life. The story depicts the inherent truth that one cannot go “there” without being impressed with at least an interpretation of spiritual reality.

In discourse between Captain Picard and an enigmatic immortal entity named “Q” in the final episode of Star Trek: The Final Frontier, “Q” indicates that the next new frontier is in the area of the mind — to boldly go where no man has gone before. The unseen realms of where mind contacts with spirit is a frontier that, in spite of social reluctance, is forging the human psyche into new ways of looking at ourselves, each other, and our place in the universe. It is our time/space conditioning that limits us to a material frame of reference. If science will not encourage us to interact with intelligent life in the universe, then religion must!

SPIRITUAL REALITY

For those unafraid of studying the practices of fellow religionists, regardless of their oddness or orthodoxy, contact with a greater reality realizes realms of fascination! To seek “through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God as we understand God” is a key step for millions of people. To lay claim to one’s own spirit guide is the vogue. And the plethora of so-called channeled materials is mind-boggling, ranging from A Course in Miracles to Eyes of the Sparrow, Pretty Flower, the Teaching Mission, the Galactic Federation, Unixitron, various Orders of Melchizedeks, The Urantia Book and Conversations with God, ad infinitum.

There is no need to waste time and money in fear. We know false prophets and charlatans when we see them! We have said to Satan, “Get thee behind me!” and he is behind us. We are avant garde, forging our way into a hopeful tomorrow. God is out of the closet and we are wearing God’s colors on our sleeves. We are speaking to God in the Stillness, through music, in tongues, by way of automatic handwriting, speculations on space, creative imagination and blind faith. He is called by as many names as we have vocabulary, including She. And God is answering — through healings, from billboards, in our hearts, and in our planetary ministry. We are claiming our place in the divine family. We have pulled our chairs up to the table for the feast of plenty and are growing fat from the bounty of God’s infinite love. Praise God.

Truly we are advancing into a new level of existence, one which we are creating by and through our hope for and faith in a Power Greater Than Ourselves. The one thing that all these fields of “light workers” have in common is the thread of fraternal affection, divine love, cosmic order, and essential at-one-ness in relationship. No longer are we alone in the universe. Whether we rely upon our celestial friends, our mortal associates, or a harmony of both, one thing is certain - we will never again be without contact.

Message from a Midwayer Speaking the Language of Divine Love

A transmission by Gerdean of a celestial personality, a midwayer, named Gorman. The Urantia Papers identify midwayers as fellow inhabitants of our planet but invisible to our mortal eyes.

I am called Gorman by my mortal associates. Although in my native language I am identified otherwise, I have given myself the name of Gorman for you so that you may know me as a name familiar to you and your language.

My problem with making contact with mortals has always been one of language. Even when I was able to get your attention, it has been a challenge to bridge the gap between my way of communicating and your way which is as different as you and I are different — although in many essential ways we are the same.

I am a being called a “midwayer” which is a designation that places me midway between the mortal and the angels. Angels are seraphim. I am not a seraphim although I do see them often. I see you, too, even in your humanness, but I do not see you with eyes like you see each other. I am invisible, but I am not spirit. I am of a substance that is accommodating to my needs as a creature of my own realm, as you are in yours. Our Creator is very thorough in his material universe. I am part of his material universe, even though you do not recognize the material out of which I am made.

I am a permanent resident of this planet, permanent, at least, to all intents and purposes. One day I will have earned the opportunity to leave, to advance, but I must await the day of your own evolution to which end we have been working for thousands of years. We do not begrudge your slow evolutionary growth into a greater awareness of the wondrous universe, of which we are all denizens, but observe, and in our observations have come to feel tremendous compassion and pity for you mortal inhabitants of this planet you call earth.

We feel compassion because of the struggles you endure and pity because of the resistance you offer. You are so willful you refuse to let us help you when we are at hand and always on call to assist in your uplifting and your enlightening processes. And thus we watch you flounder and fail, struggle against insurmountable odds; we see your hopes dashed time and again as you insist on doing it your way, when in truth, there is a better way if you would but release your hold over each other in such a way as to allow your universe helpers the opportunity to be of service to you.

When I say “you” I mean ALL of you. All of you who reach out, who reach up, no matter who you are, what calling or sense of mission purpose you have ordained for yourselves. We recognize at once those of you who are pulling for life instead of rejoicing in the death of life. You are all cherished by us. We yearn to come to your aide but you refuse to recognize us who are your kin in this great enterprise. What is worse is when you vie with each other — those of you who follow the call to advance and then stumble over your brother’s feet. Too many times we stand helplessly by as you push your brother aside in an attempt to beat him out or to disenfranchise him from your field of dreams because he does not speak the same language, he does not use the same terminology that you have ordained for yourselves and which you regard as the final truth.

What right have you got to deny the urgings and leadings and inspirations of your brethren just because they have devised their own language to interpret these wondrous realities which are the precise same realities which you yourself aspire to attain? We have had to create a language in order that we may communicate with you in your native tongue. Cannot you do the same for those that you would serve? Quit claiming your words, your interpretations, your symbolisms as the only vehicle for truth and growing when the joy and challenge is there for you to share these language skills, these communication differences in order to expand and enlarge upon the faint glimmers that each of you individually reveal to yourselves in your striving for acknowledgement in the greater universe. Content yourself with the acknowledgement of your fellow sojourners and enrich your path by so doing.

The ultimate language, which we all can agree upon, is the language of divine love. This is the theme of the new movement upon which you have embarked. The heart of the matter. The language of the heart. Heart connections. Divine love. Love one another. Is not the message the same and does it not boil down to an experience rather than a word? Can you not go direct to the feeling, the experience, the existential actuality of your relationship with that which is allowing you to learn to live in love?

The challenge for you, my young mortal associates, is to learn to use language as a tool FOR rather than AGAINST the gifts of the gods.

In this way we will make MEANINGFUL CONTACT. It will not be a repeat of this world’s history of brother against brother, but of humankind for humankind. Let us help you. Learn to listen with your heart. Learn to trust the universe itself and in so doing you will relinquish your hold over your co-workers and learn to trust their motives as they learn to trust yours.

The Ascended Masters

<http://www.ascendedmaster.org/>

A foundation formed from the Great White Brotherhood is carrying on the teachings of a host of celestial luminaries in an impressive book collection. Their basis ...

THE TWO DISPENSATIONS OF THE 20TH CENTURY

In August 1930, the Ascended Master Saint Germain contacted Guy W. Ballard on Mt. Shasta and explained to him certain aspects of Cosmic Law and the history of mankind. This beautiful experience is recorded in the book "Unveiled Mysteries" and many believe this historic meeting heralded in the New Age.

Under the dispensation given to Saint Germain, the instructions given by the Ascended Host no longer needed to be veiled; mysticism and legends are no longer the requirement of the hour. For the first time, the Ascended Masters could give out information on the individualized God-Presence (I AM Presence) and the Violet Transmuting Flame.

After the experiences on Mt. Shasta, Mr. Ballard received more messages, which were incorporated into books. Many were healed while attending his lectures. Unfortunately, after the ascension of Mr. Ballard in 1939, these books were no longer made available to the general public (they were made available again in the 1980's). None of them were ever translated.

Why is the Great White Brotherhood so concerned about getting its message out to all of mankind? Because the Law of Conservation of Energy applies also to the Ascended Masters. The tons of energy released by the Great Ones need to be returned by mankind. How can this energy be returned, if new students do not have access to the original dictations?

It was primarily for this reason, that the Masters had to look elsewhere to carry forward their message. In 1952, the Great White Brotherhood received a 20-year dispensation to give new aspects of Ascended Master Teaching. They utilized Geraldine Innocente, the unascended twin-flame of the Ascended Master El Morya, as an authorized messenger.

Forced to start totally anew, the Masters repeated, in substance, all of the data given previously in the 1930's. However, many subjects and many valuable details were added. These new dictations were published under the name "The Bridge to Freedom."

Unfortunately, after the ascension of Geraldine

Innocente in 1961, the mistakes of the earlier dispensation were repeated. Again, the messages of the Masters did not find the widest possible distribution. During the summer conference of the "Bridge to Freedom" in 1979, it was announced that the "Bridge to Freedom" had accomplished its goal, and that its name was changed.

Two group leaders of the "Bridge to Freedom," who attended this conference, did not feel that this decision was done in accordance with the wishes of the Ascended Masters. The masters had stated that the task of the "Bridge" would only be complete, after every member of the human race had passed over this spiritual bridge, connecting the human realm to the divine realm, and gained the ascension. This experience, and the unwillingness of the leaders of the "Bridge to Freedom" to publish almost all of Geraldine's dictations and to give her credit for the original dictations, led to the establishment of the Ascended Master Teaching Federation, as a non-profit corporation, in 1980.

GOALS AND PURPOSES OF THE AMTF

The AMTF was founded for one purpose, alone—namely, to make the teachings of the "Bridge to Freedom" available to all mankind, and to present them in their original, pure form. Therefore, the AMTF considers itself the successor organization of the "Bridge to Freedom." These instructions are timeless; they apply to mankind's situation of yesterday, today and tomorrow. The Masters called this material, "the New Age Bible, written for generations yet to come."

If a student seriously investigates this teaching, he will find that the material of the original "Bridge to Freedom" is unique and that, if practiced, it will enable him to make the ascension in this embodiment.

Genesis and all of the succeeding Biblical Law is being written again. It is a Bible made up of the energies of the Archangels, the Cosmic Beings and the Ascended Masters that will stand for the rest of the civilizations being brought forth on this planet Earth

For those who are new to this teaching, the books "Unveiled Mysteries, Essential Lessons" and "Man, His Origin, History and Destiny" are recommended. They give a summary of the teaching.

THE INNER SEARCH

“What is Truth?” asked Pontius Pilate, 2000 years ago. It is a pertinent question, even today. Ascended Master Teaching provides not only an answer to this question, but also explains other inquiries such as:

Why am I here?

At what time did mankind first appear on Earth and what were the prevailing conditions?

What did man look like and what were his capabilities?

Was there a Garden of Eden and how long did it last?

Where am I going and what is my destiny? Is there life after death and what exactly happens after I transition from the earth-plane?

Where did Jesus get his training and what can you tell me about his early life?

The teachings of the Ascended Masters are not new. Millions of years ago, when man first set foot on this globe, certain highly-developed individuals, called Ascended Beings, voluntarily chose to assist mankind in fulfilling its destiny. These beings dedicated their lives to serving God.

Later on, after the fall of man, several Ascended Masters formed the Great White Brotherhood (the word “white” does not refer to race), a group of Ascended Beings, who made the sacrifice of postponing their own spiritual evolution until all mankind is ascended and free. Jesus, Lord Gautama (Buddha), Moses and Confucius are members of this group. In order to convey its message, the Great White Brotherhood needs the authority of the Karmic Board, who gives dispensations averaging once every 100 years.

The original Bible text corresponded more closely to the teachings of the Great White Brotherhood than it does now. The Bible, unfortunately, was embellished upon by many translators and at subsequent conclaves by representatives of the Christian Church. There always has been, throughout the ages—the present time included—the human tendency to change truths and impress upon them a personal imprint.

CELESTIAL CONTACT at 2000

Is It Time for Visitors?

by FRED HARRIS

I want to tell you about a book I just read and then relate it to a question I posed earlier on this list, to wit: what do all the clues we know indicate as to the future?

I had expressed an interest in the significance of certain things, including:

1. The arrival of the Urantia Book and the timing of its arrival
2. Reports of UFO sightings
3. Reports of abductions by UFOs
4. The belief by some that a spiritual upliftment was in progress
5. The belief by some that a Magisterial Teacher Son or other celestial personality would arrive in the near future
6. The belief by some that the Lucifer trial was over, the planetary quarantine lifted, and the circuits were now open

I will add to this my own belief that something dramatic will have to happen to change the attitude of the world from its materialistic bent to a more spiritual perspective. People have speculated that this event would be some cataclysmic event, whether it be a nuclear war, global depression, earth changes or something equally negative.

It is with this background that I read "The Contact Has Begun" by a 25 year veteran of the Los Angeles Times Metro Desk, Phillip H. Krapf. Now from what I can tell, Mr. Krapf was a hardboiled skeptic, atheist and UFO nonbeliever. When he retired, his wife was out of town for three days and in that period he was abducted by a UFO. The book chronicles his experiences. They are interesting.

First, the aliens indicated that they were from an advanced civilization that had been monitoring the planet for around 1,000 years. They say that they come in peace. They are members of the Intergalactic Federation of Sovereign Planets (IFSP) and when a culture comes within 1,000 years of being capable of space travel, they begin to observe the planet to determine whether the species will be suitable for becoming a partner in the IFSP. If so, they will guide the species through the final critical stages to ensure a smooth transition into interstellar travel. If not, they don't let them get into the space travel business - keep the riff raff out of space, I guess.

Second, the aliens indicated that for the last century or so they had been abducting (they didn't call it that, but...) people and studying them. They said that they didn't want to create chaos like Orson Welles' had done with his War of the Worlds radio program so they chose people who were neither famous nor particularly credible. (Hence the famous question, "Why is it always Goober and never Sheriff Taylor who gets abducted?") Now they are changing the program and will be taking famous and influential people, leaders in industry, religion, government, etc. and advising them of the situation so that they will be able to break the news to the population gently.

What news?

It is time for contact. The aliens want to meet with world leaders and to establish a world government campus where people can come to be trained in the ways of the universe. That contact is speculated to be several years away, but will culminate in 600 acres of barren SW US property being turned into a plush, green campus overnight (with buildings, etc.) so there will be no doubt that the aliens are for real.

Now this is an event that could indeed get everyone's attention and perhaps change their perspective, wouldn't you say? Can this be one catalyst for the upcoming increased spiritual consciousness?

Several other items: The aliens say that God is real and that they believe in the spiritual realms, which shocked the author of the book (being an atheist), as you can imagine. Also, the aliens say that this is the most diverse planet that they have ever encountered and that about 20% of the population appears to be antisocial in one way or another and they feel that that portion should be isolated and not permitted to procreate (no indication who they are nor how they would be identified, etc., but an interesting comment in light of some of the UB comments on this very explosive subject).

Finally, rather than a cataclysmic event to get everyone's attention, this would be a positive thing, with aliens sharing their technology, etc. to help us along.

As an interesting aside, they say that they did have a craft crash in Roswell (due to an inexperienced pilot who was not used to the heavy atmosphere of Earth and that if it hadn't been for the military's super secret mentality, their existence would have been exposed prematurely, but that the military successfully kept the lid on it, hiding it from civilian leaders as well as from the public.

So, maybe this is another piece of the puzzle. While it is rather far out, if true, it does answer a few questions. Check out the book if you like as I continue to sift through the information to see what comes into focus. I will say that this type of event could very easily become a catalyst for a spiritual renaissance and could be part of the "new and oncoming social order" that the UB says won't "settle down complacently for a millennium."

"Mankind is on the march toward a new and unrevealed planetary destiny." (p.1086)

A Message From The Hopi Elders

Recent weeks have seen an aggressive campaign to disseminate the message here from the Hopi Nation. It speaks to these changing times.

There is a river flowing now very fast. It is so great and swift, that there are those who will be afraid. They will try to hold on to the shore. They will feel they are being torn apart and will suffer greatly.

Know the river has its destination. The elders say we must let go of the shore, push off into the middle of the river, keep our eyes open, and our heads above the water. And I say, see who is in there with you and celebrate.

At this time in history, we are to take nothing personal. Least of all, ourselves. For the moment that we do, our spiritual growth and journey comes to a halt

The time of the lone wolf is over. Gather yourselves !

Banish the word "struggle" from your attitude and your vocabulary. All that we do now must be done in a sacred manner and in celebration.

ASHTAR COMMAND: Airborne Division of Jesus, The Christ

The Ashtar Command is the airborne division of the Brother/Sisterhood of Light, under the administrative direction of Commander Ashtar and the spiritual guidance of Lord Sananda, known to Earth as Jesus, or the Christ, our Commander-in-Chief.

Composed of millions of starships and personnel from many civilizations, we are here to assist Earth and humanity through the current cycle of planetary cleansing and polar realignment. We serve like midwives in the birthing of humanity from dense-physical to physical-etheric bodies of light, capable of ascending into the fifth dimension along with the Earth.

1. We are the Hosts of Heaven who serve the Most Radiant One (the Christ) in his mission of love. We work in coordination with the legions of Michael, Uriel, Jophiel, Gabriel and the 70 Brotherhoods of Light that administer the Divine Plan. We serve by monitoring and stabilizing the planetary grid systems and serve as protectors of this universal sector. Different fleets within the Command specialize in spiritual education, ascension, scientific survey, communication, monitoring planetary affairs, and the well-being of our personnel, universal and intergalactic statesmanship and law, species observation, education, relocation, media and artistic expression, healing, horticulture, zoology, and many other areas of research.

2. A major focus at this time is the activation of the collective Messiah, the 144,000 ascended masters (referred to as Eagles within the Command) who form the Legion of Special Volunteers. These are the star-seeded emissaries from the Office of the Christ, through the interstellar Councils of Light, here on earth assignment. Their awakening is crucial to the transition of the planet. Hence, we and our earth-based representatives are here to facilitate the awakening of the Eagles and other Light servers. Our mission administers the sacred ordinances of the Lord God Most High and functions through the Elohim, the Councils of Orion, the Great Central Sun hierarchy and Order of Melchizedek.

3. We acknowledge that God, the Source, is one omnipresent, eternal life force, universally recognized by many names and forms.

4. We affirm that there is one "only begotten Son of God," as pure unconditional love extended throughout creation. The Lord God of the highest positive realms of spirit created and extended only love.

This Son of God exists as a state of divine consciousness or Christhood exemplified by divine embodiments such as Jesus, Sanada, Maitreya, Krishna and others. These and all true teachers or avatars represent a multidimensional collective of love-wisdom, focalized and extended through the Office of the Christ.

This office, as well as other divine thrones of celestial administration, is anchored by a trinity. Currently the Office of the Christ is held by Lord Jesus, Lord Moses and Lord Elijah.

The current planetary christ is Lord Maitreya. These Christed energies are held as well by Lord Kuthumi and others as our cycle progresses into the future and the new hierarchy of masters take their places.) Lord Sathva Sai Baba, currently residing in South India, manifests cosmic Christhood and also Father-Mother Godhood as an extremely rare full avatar, known as the Kalkhi Avatar or tenth incarnation of Lord Vishnu.

The Christ also manifests as the individualized soul within mankind with the potential of expressing perfect sonship, or Christhood. The collective Messiah consists of those 144,000 ascended masters who accompany the Christ or appointed Messiah on a mission of love. These constitute the true church or body of Christ.

This body of divine sonship is not limited to 144,000, but requires that minimum number to leaven and give rise to the loaf of humanity (the ascension) or shift into a new paradigm. The door of grace is open to any who would step forth and choose conscious sonship.

5. We teach that in highest truth, you have never left the heart of God. As rays of God Source, we have the divine function of extending God's love throughout the cosmos. (The belief in separation we refer to as the father of all lies and the root cause of all fear and negativity or ignorance, expressed as what we refer to as the ego or false self.)

THE UNIXITRON REVELATION

Introduced by Charles Kunz

(This work is found on the Internet as www.unixi.com in 14 chapters and 800+ pages. It is not in printed book form.)

Are we in the promised time of world changes? Are Spiritual Beings making contact with humanity now? Is there a bridge between them and us? Who are these beings?

Questions like the ones above, and many other similar ones, are being thought and talked about routinely and openly now. Our thinking on these matters seems to have shifted from the “can it be true?” question to the “when and how” mode. We are blessed with many works of inspiration and revelation that help humanity not only to dream, but to act as a result of this information in making life changes in accord with physical and spiritual law.

Who can deny having their life direction somehow affected by the expanded visualization that is becoming available at this time? And not only in the cosmic sense, but the personal day to day aspects too. These, in our opinion, are given to us in accordance to the needs of the times. They give us the needed expanded consciousness of both the outer and inner lives we lead. Without this guidance we would have a difficult time making the internal changes needed to be in sync with the ongoing world changes. The Following are brief excerpts from the Unixitron revelation, Global Education.

From CHRIST MICHAEL OF NEBADON
Presenting a new Revelation for Humankind
At www.unixi.com

“.....The planetary restoration is now in progress. The appearance of Divine Order is a fact, and in this process, Harmony manifests, allowing all who have accepted the Divine Paternity to directly have a relationship with the FATHER OF FATHERS. The Action of Divine Justice makes itself felt and in its ordering each individual enters the vibrational level which corresponds to him or her. This is as Planet Earth passes to the level of LIGHT AND LIFE, in which each of its residents lovingly accepts THE DIVINE GOVERNMENT. The fundamental achievement here is that all actions have led to the seating of the GLOBAL GOVERNMENT, and for humanity to receive the blessings of Light which the FATHER OF FATHERS extends to HIS children.....”

“.....The Plan of THE FATHER-MOTHER has begun to function effectively, but the part concerning the external decisions is yet to be completed. Each individual should be aware of the service his Being has taken in order to lovingly manifest it in life. The goal is very near, it can be seen on its final stretch! All will have their specific responsibility to fulfill, but from now on all must be doubly responsible to themselves and for their actions of interchange with their surroundings. The consciousness will be unified day by day, bringing a greater understanding of the labor one should perform. Moreover, all will have the unconditional assistance of the Higher Beings pulsing for the manifestation of THE TRINITY THAT EACH ONE IS. Slowly you will be given more opportunities to consciously and lovingly serve Life. These options of service will make it possible for the Being to lovingly take command at the precise moment of the Unique CONSECRATION AS SERVERS OF THE HIGHEST. Take advantage of these opportunities and search for the Truth that will set you free, then you will clearly see the service you should offer....”

I AM the prime mover in this Manifestation of Light, an Unconditional Server to Life on the Planet, and Am an anxious spectator of the evolution of the soul in its conquest of the Spheres of Light where preparations are underway to consummate your assured reintegration into the Original Fountain of Life. I proclaim the Action of Love as the Principle of Liberation. I sustain Love as the way of Life. I offer the Essence of My Being to each who consciously accepts the invitation to share with Me the Divine Government now manifesting on the Holy Star of Liberation.

“I sustain the unconditionality of My Being in Service to the One Life and Call on the Conscious Mankind living on the Planet to share with Me this Beautiful Opportunity to Love, Love and more Love. On accepting this invitation you are embraced by My Being which is committed to Commune with you, making you coparticipants in My Kingdom. This will insure that the Holy Star of Liberation be a Planet in Order, Light and Love, where in time the Presence of the FATHER OF FATHERS will be accepted in each heart.

“The opportunity offered is mutual, because as Father I commit Myself to watch over each who accepts Me. This relationship is based on the loving Order of Unconditional Service to the One and Only Universal Life, allowing Love to take each particle of life to the Triune Essence of My Being.

“The direct line between My Being and your Being is reestablished! The Circuit of Light and Life is reconnected! The Threefold Essence of Light pulses! The

I Trust the Light

by Valerie Donner

You don't know me but you will know me a little more by the time you have read this article. I hope that you feel a more divine connection with the Light after you have read what I have to say. I am a "divine communicator." I am a spokesperson for the Realms of Light.

My earliest recollection is that of coming through a dark tunnel from the Light and being told what my name was going to be in this lifetime. It was an earth landing into this physical body with a remembrance that I came from somewhere, a place of Light.

This planet often feels like it is made of a dross heavy nature. In fact, it is weighted down with the third dimensional energy. It is far more than what you can feel, see, taste, hear and touch. Just like we are more than our physical bodies, the planet is filled with Light.

I have always been drawn to the Light. I love to look at the dancing Lights of the ocean as they are filtered through the sun. I feel mesmerized by the Lights on a lake. My heart leaps for joy when I see the Light in a person's eyes, whether it is a baby, an adult or an elderly person. The Light is there shining through.

I am sensitive to the Light, like many of you. I crave being out in the sun and in nature where I can watch the shadows of Light play in a redwood forest, or touch the petals of a rose. The reflection of Light is a trigger of life, of the power and energy of God, or Prime Creator, as He is sometimes called. All of the beauty that sheds its Light upon us is a gift of love and a beacon to our hearts to awaken the love of creation.

Watching a sunrise or sunset is a delight of colors like God's canvas of Light playing against the sky and bringing us closer to a place of our origin. It is God's daily dramatic reminder of His love for us by easing the flow of day to night. It leaves a lasting impression of the significance and colors of the day, of the daylight.

The Light communicates with us on many different levels. The more open we are the more the Light can reach us. It can find us in our darkest hours. One day when I was going through a challenging personal crisis in my life, I was walking to work in downtown San Francisco. I was grieving and afraid.

All of a sudden I heard a voice inside of me say, "If you loved God more you wouldn't be so afraid." The voice stopped me in my tracks for it was a loud and authoritative voice. It shook me up. I thought I did love God but apparently I was not relying on my love of God at this time of crisis.

It was a miracle to me to be spoken to with such conviction and love. I have never forgotten this voice that found me in my darkest hour and reminded me to trust God. It brought an upliftment to me. It showed me the Light in a way that I needed it to be revealed to me at that time. It was a lightening bolt of pure truth and energy.

Everyday along my earthly journey I follow the trail of Light. Sometimes this Light comes from within. In my training to be a hands-on-healer, the first time I laid hands on someone I heard voices inside of me that said, "We are here!" I knew they meant business and they were powerful beings of Light. I had resisted using these abilities out of fear and denial. I got such confirmation from them to continue doing this work. I knew it was leading someplace.

Now when I work with them they speak through me to others. They tell them what they need to hear. I trust what they say because my clients confirm afterwards the truths they have been told for their healing.

Sometimes I hear loud words in my head about a person's condition. One day I worked with a woman who was in a lot of pain. She had presented to the hospital emergency room two days before. The doctors wanted to do surgery on her for appendicitis but she refused the surgery looking for another way of healing. A friend told her about me.

When she came to my house she looked pale and had little energy. I put my hands on her and in my the left ear I heard "hot appendix." In hospital terms that means an appendix that is about to rupture. I trusted and continued the process not knowing what would occur. In the healing it became clear that she had a pressing emotional issue that was pressing on her appendix. We talked about the issue that she had not been able to discuss with any one other than her family. She worked with the emotional pain. At the end of the session I heard in my right ear "She's free."

This was a new experience for me. I let the words of the Light guide the process. She truly looked different, had energy, and the pain was gone. She exclaimed that she was healed. I told her she could go to the doctor again and make sure things were all right but this proved to be unnecessary.

As a channel for the Light Realms I also trust what comes through whether I am doing spiritual counseling, writing, or a channeling class. The first time I did a channeling class we had a profound celebration with the Light Realms. They were happy that I was bringing through their energy and information. It was indeed the most wonderful energy from the Light that I had ever experienced. I feel blessed, indeed.

In writing for my web site: www.thegroundcrew.com I am always guided what to write. I feel the energy and ideas come to me. The topics usually seem to be what people need to hear. I write a column called "Straight From The Heart." The articles come from my heart and the knowingness that I feel within comes from the Realms of Light.

The purpose of the web site is to serve humanity. I feel that most of the readers are Lightworkers, like myself, and those of you who are reading this journal. We are here to serve humanity and to anchor in the Light of God on this planet. By our very presence here we make it possible for the planet to survive. By providing information and reassurance of what is now occurring on many different levels we en-Lighten others on their journey. Information is also Light and it helps to weave the threads of Light throughout all of life.

We are certainly far more than what we do for a living. Perhaps we should ask ourselves on a daily basis what we do for the Light and for life. Know that the Light Realms are closer to us than ever before. They are here to assist us and want us to call upon them when we need them. Ask Mother Mary to come to you, or Christ, or the Archangels like Michael or Gabriel. They are waiting for you to ask. You will be filled with the joy of their presence.

You are all messengers of the Light in whatever way you choose to give this expression. All you have to do is trust the Light and let the Light shine through you as your most divine expression of the God within.

THE TEACHING MISSION: On the Subject of Celestial Contact at 2000

The network of Teaching Mission (TeaM) celestial contact groups grew out of Urantia Papers study groups. There have been many concerns and questions about the concept of contact, which is a controversial topic within the Urantia Papers organizations and the foundation which publishes the Urantia Book.

From the various times that humans have questioned the celestial teachers about this subject, here is a collection of responses and interchanges.

TARKAS: from Half Moon Bay, CA June 20, 1998 - SpiritFest group session

We fully respect the fact that you are each a unique and marvelous creation of God; that you will find your own way in which to express your understanding of this relationship with God, that we are offering this Teaching Mission as one, hopefully, broad and fulfilling path which can, indeed, accommodate a great diversity of personalities and levels of commitment and expressions of affiliation, but that this will certainly be a one-on-one decision for each of you.

We are confident, that as this Mission continues, many, many people, millions, I will venture to say, millions will follow with us on this path over time and yet, we do, indeed, respect the level of experimentation which occurs, here, now, on this planet and we hold to no fixed schedule. Indeed, we rework our schedule, at this point, with much regularity. We look at these, as it were, as the draft for today as how things may proceed.

So, choose to be with us. We hope you will. And, yet, if there is any level at which you say, "Now, I think I need to wait on this. I need to mull this over more. I wish to learn more of these people that are now affiliated with this." Then, so be it. This is, absolutely, a healthy and appropriate way in which for you to respond to this Mission, also.

When you are ready, we will be there, also ready, to work with you. And, to whatever degree you say, "I have heard of this. I believe I understand what is happening, now. But, I choose to find another path for myself to God."

Trust me, we are most joyous that you have, indeed, listened within your own heart to your own leadings. And, you will, indeed, be fully cared for and offered guidance in any other path that you may possibly choose.

I would encourage each of you to also recognize that as you represent this Mission to others, you are carrying, at this point, a great amount of power, of potential as to the effect that this may have on any listening, interested person.

This is, indeed, a great step of faith to say, not just that there is such a thing as celestial intervention but that, "I can be witness to this. I can be involved with this via human conduits of these messages and actually a group of people who base their affiliation on these relationships with celestial Teachers." Take this message to people, always with a willingness to be most patient as they themselves consider these potentials.

This is a great leap for many people, and for some of you already, this has been a point of heartache, that those you love dearly are not able to make this leap, this extension of belief to relationships with those of us who teach you from this level. And, indeed, there has been turmoil and pain for you in these relationships because you feel this sense of belief yourself and there is no possibility of this for those you love. They are simply not ready or willing.

We wish to comfort you regarding this, ask you please not to burn bridges in your own love and concern for any of those who feel this way. This is an opportunity for you to express a sense of compassion for their anxieties or fears regarding your choice. This is an opportunity for you to learn what it means to keep your own counsel in a sense of diplomatic respect for the other person's mindset.

You will, indeed, be given many opportunities to still continue with your heart's desire to work with us if you will also choose to create a sense of stability and respect in these relationships with those you care for who are most bothered discussion, even, of this Teaching Mission.

You may not see that clearly, yet. It may seem to you an either/or, black or white choice. "I choose this or I choose this." But I say to you, this is not the case. And if you will remember to honor the integrity of the commitment and love you feel for this person, these people who respond to you this way, that we will, indeed, be most effective and ingenious in providing ways in which you will still be able to work with us.

I hope this statement I have just made addresses an issue which does, indeed, concern some of you most greatly and so I chose to bring it up myself rather than wait for a possible statement from any of you regarding this. If this has not yet been an issue for some of you in this room, and we know for some of you this has been an easy path to choose to work with us, there may be points that will arise in the future where this will not be the case.

And, I hope at those times, you will remember my words, "Don't burn your bridges with people whom you love and respect simply because you hold strongly to a belief in this Mission.

There will be ways that will be offered to each of you where you can have your cake and eat it, too. I will put it in that manner. And, I ask for your trust regarding this.

A Celestial Invitation to Fight your Fears

From: Mary F Ebben
<mary.ebben@juno.com>

Almost all questions from new people to the Teaching Mission (and UB for that matter) seem to hinge on fear. Why not open your group time with a statement/prayer? If I might suggest something like:

We hereby set our intention to come together in love and service for the purposes of spiritual growth. We invite only those beings that come forth in Love and Light in service to God to minister on His behalf.

We ask that only Truth enter and that anything not of Truth be cleansed, cleared and returned to God. We ask that God's Light shower us with protection and that only that which is in our highest and best good or the good of all concerned, enter.

With clear intentions, free-will choice, open hearts, and faith in God, we call forth our teachers, angels and guides. We call forth all those from Love and Light who wish to witness or participate.

We call forth those who wish to guide and teach us on behalf of our Paradise Father in whom we live and serve and through whom all things are possible. We thank you Father for this offering of Love and proceed with Your guidance.

Balance comes, in my opinion, comes from taking the best from everything, BUT, ask your teachers for an opening prayer which will ease the fears of new members.

We, of course, would be most pleased if you would model yourselves upon the manner and attitude that we evidence in our work. Is it not so that all Teachers feel greatly complimented when their students do, indeed, receive their instruction, and look to them as mentors, modelers, shapers of their own attempts to understand, learn, and instruct others? This is a high compliment to us. And, we are most appreciative seeing you develop your own sense of this relationship, and how you can offer it to others.

J: I have a hunch that this sort of personal mentorship that Teachers offer and exert is something I'd like to emulate.

BETHERA: I would say that some of the common traits you have witnessed among us are such attributes as loyalty to our students, to our curriculum, to our leaders, a sense of forgiving kindness and gentle patience in the way in which we interact with our students. We know we often repeat ourselves, and we accept that this is necessary. We see you as willing and desirous of more and more information. And, as is so often the case, we recognize, that as you seek further topics to be discussed, you have not necessarily done the homework of what we have already offered, and we are most desirous that this part of our curriculum be attended to, also. Just as when you, also, wish to offer information to others, you are most appreciative when they not only receive this information, but, indeed, take the time to read and study it. This is an essential part of true acquisition of whatever knowledge you have offered, and we, too, seek this industrious attitude within you, our students.

I would say that a further way in which we hope you relish us is that we do, indeed, love and care so strongly for each other. We are good companions in our work, J. We are considerate and, indeed, well aware of the efforts and demands that have been placed upon each of us in our work, and we are considerate of each other's efforts. We respect and appreciate what we see in each other's work. We frequently visit each other in our work, and readily provide feedback and a sense of appreciation for all efforts made. We are most pleased when we see the same sense of consideration and appreciation develop among all of you—those times you take the moment to thank those who have provided work, materials, conveniences, perhaps, the homes or locations in which you gather. All ways in which this Teaching Mission manifests itself consist of efforts made by the human participants within this Mission. And, we do not wish any of you to feel 'taken for granted,' as it were, in your work. Therefore, we hope that our model of appreciation and respect for each other as Teachers will, indeed, infiltrate, penetrate, and shape your own sense of yourselves working together.

THE TEACHING MISSION

OLFANA: from Half Moon Bay

Answering questions about spirit world contact from a transpersonal psychologist, K.

K: Tell me more about who you are?

OLFANA: Do you wish this to be a statement of my responsibilities and capacities within this Teaching Mission, or are you asking me this question from some other perspective?

K: I would just like to know the general characteristics of you, your general qualities. And, yes, something about the Teaching Mission would be very helpful too. Yes. Thank you.

OLFANA: I would first say, I am one who comes to understand myself better as I progress. In this sense, I am a progressive creation, a progressive being of The Father's Creation. My origins were as a time-and-space mortal, just as you are now. But, I no longer am limited by this definition. I have increased my range and scope of capacities, so that I exist now with The Father, in a sense from the Eternal Oneness of All. [Note: Olfana is fused with her Thought Adjuster.] This is a concept which is not easily conveyed through (the human transmitter), but I would refer you to the discussion within the Urantia Book, K, of a Fused Being of The Father.

K: Okay.

OLFANA: I am one with my Thought Adjuster, now. And this has allowed me immense growth and discovery in my being. It is not easily conveyed through --, and I do wish you to research this topic within the book, if you would choose to do so. Is this enough in the way of a definition of myself, as it were? Do you wish my ranking as a category or...?

K: I would like that, too.

OLFANA: The reason I smile here, now, is that this is not, indeed, an appropriate way to delineate my scope and capacity within The Father's Creation; but, I do understand the human need to categorize.

I am an ascended mortal from a time-and-space world who has now developed God-Fused capacities to reach beyond all limitations of time and space. I can operate within time and space dimensions, but am in no way restrained by these parameters. I am well aware of much of the "Knowingness" ... the Wisdom of God's Ways, and am guided from this high level of His Design. I have "power" over other beings, if you will, in that my scope, capacity, and range is so much more all-encompassing than theirs. But, I would never, in any way, violate the freewill choice, and growth, of those within my "realm of responsibility", as it were. [Smiling] Does this give you enough of a sense of where I stand "below and above" others within God's Creation, K?

K: It illustrates things very nicely. It leads me to ask about the "power" that you have over others.

OLFANA: I am capable of mindal connections, such as this, most easily. I am able to offer guidance and encouragement by other means of communication. I have great understanding of the powers and forces of the natural world, and am able to manipulate the energies of physical life through my training with this marvelous group, the Life Carriers. I am a master, K, in this manipulation of these energies, and now, train others, too, in this process.

K: Is being an ascended person connected with a fused person? Is that correct?

OLFANA: This is most clearly illustrated in the Urantia Book. And, I would say to you, these are two separate definitions of condition.

"Ascended" refers to having encompassed the death experience. I have moved past the time-and-space world through the process of death, and ascend, now, in my path to The Father. [Smiling] My fusion with God's Being was a moment of creative bliss, which I earned through my efforts and desire to know the Father at this high level. It was an experience I committed myself to with great diligence, and encompassed a long span of experiences, if you will, before I achieved this point.

K: Thank you. That helps. So I guess you explained, as fully as necessary, how you are connected with -- You hold each other in each other's hearts.

OLFANA: [Smiling] I would say that this does, indeed, explain well the way in which we relate.

K: Then let me go on. Why are you communicating with humans in this way?

OLFANA: I have chosen this "missionary work," if you will, as an evolutionary path of my own. I see this Campaign of Redemption, proposed by our great Creator Son, as a momentous experience within this local universe of Nebadon, of which I am a resident, and I willingly offered my services to his Campaign.

my services to his Campaign.

K: Okay. Well that explains it very nicely.

OLFANA: There was a call to service, K, to which I responded. [Smiling] That is “the short answer.”

K: Okay. Thank you. Tell me, where are you, and what are you doing when you are not involved in channeling?

OLFANA: Smiling] Again, we will go first for “the short answer.” I am present now, in this room, with both of you, in this connection. By this I mean you [K] are literally in connection with me now, also. I regroup the vibratory forces of your beings in such a way that this connection frequency can be established. This is not the only means by which I can make communication connections, but, it is definitely the clearest process, to be engaged in the manner in which we now are connected.

The second question you posed, Where am I at other times? I do not reside as the genie in the lamp, as it were. I am given much latitude and initiative to explore this world, and have access to many other zones, or planes of existence, if you will. Therefore, my short answer would be that: I am a free-ranging citizen of the local universe of Nabadon, and can be in many locations— never at the same time—mind you. I am not Christ Michael. But, I am able to move quickly from one zone to the next or, indeed, one vibratory level of experience to another.

K: And what are you doing when you’re not channeling?

OLFANA: I am participating within this mission on many levels of administration and management. I work with other teachers in their own training and development of their groups. And I make individual connections with other living beings on this planet. I consult on a regular basis with those in power who conduct this Campaign of Redemption — Prince Machiventa, and his many administrative assistants directly under him, who are carrying out his orders.

There are many meetings held among the teachers, where we consult with regularity on the ways in which we will conduct this mission. We are not committed, at this point, to any one fixed pattern of evolution. Prince Machiventa remains very open to change in this process.

This is, indeed, a decimal plant, an experimental world, and we must not hinder that process of experimentation. Again, I would refer you to the Urantia Book, if you wish to understand this concept better. But this campaign must “float freely” upon the currents of experimentation which flow around and through this planet.

DANIEL on the Magnitude of Contact Pocatello, Idaho - September 24, 1999

DANIEL: ( via TR Bill): Greetings to you all, my most beloved friends and students. There are assembled in your midst a number of unseen personalities, both morontial and of spirit natures. We have also in our midst visitors to this planet en route to positions of other responsibility.

I wish to address and briefly comment on the observations that you were making earlier, that contact from the celestial realm is being perceived and reported outside of the groups which call themselves the Teaching Mission. This, of course, is consistent with what we have been telling you now for a number of years, for, indeed, the current status is that where ever there are individuals who are following their inner guidance there is the potential for this kind of contact. This is the result of the massive infusion of personalities who have been volunteers to this planet. What began with 50 male and 50 female teachers has now reached numbers which are quite staggering in their size. We will continue to pursue the injunction of our leader Prince Machiventa that every desirous human soul be given this kind of spiritual contact.

My friends you have grown accustomed to our presence and that is as it should be. We were quite a phenomenon to you at the beginning, a mixture of “too good to be true” and “woo-woo” kind of fear, but now you are becoming much more like people on a normal planet, and so in contrast the affairs of the world now strike you as quite strange, quite infantile and quite futile. This is a difference in your perspectives as you have re-framed your minds day by day in your walk Godward.

I wish to comment a little further on this change of perspective. Isaac is reminded of words from the New Testament which he once thought were hopelessly idealistic; where St. Paul advised the Christian believers in Philippi not to dwell in their thinking upon what he termed “worldly things,” but rather to have the mind of Christ and to think upon the things which are good, noble and uplifting. What had seemed so utterly strange to my TR friend here as a young man has now become a possibility, that he can indeed embrace the things that are uplifting with greater and greater ease, and think on these things a lot of the time.

I know that this is true for all of you, because your familiarity with the spiritual realm has been greatly advanced by the time that you take, however and whenever you do, to pay attention to the stillness within. Because you share this perspective together your company has an ease to it, an instinctive comradery. It is so because you do share the same perspective; this is another way that you share spiritual unity, for it is your perspective that clarifies your goals. It is the mind's function to unify and to coordinate, and this is what you are doing with your new perspectives.

Question: Does the Melchizedek schools mean our personal teachers?

DANIEL: Yes, it includes your personal teachers as well as your participation in the Teaching Mission meetings, and your time in quiet as well.

VERONICA - SEPT. 29, 1994 (TR-Arlene) Volcano, Hawaii RISK AND CHALLENGE

Cherished companions and loving friends, Please accept my gratitude for your desire to open your hearts and minds to the potential of change.

*You are like explorers of the spirit on a divine quest to discover the great expanse of cosmic awareness.
Your willingness to accept risk and challenge will determine your learning and growth as you traverse consciousness in the totality of eternal life. Risk always involves action and resoluteness to confront change and this will blossom into wisdom and spiritual accomplishment.*

When we accept challenge, we must expose ourselves to failure and disappointment; however, if we place ultimate confidence in the Father, our trust in Him will soothe our temporary unsuccessfulness and sustain our persistence for advancement.

Risks require courage and incentive, and we can develop these strengths from our time of stillness with the Master of our wisdom. Adept awareness will invigorate your receptivity to challenge and invoke the desire to conquer uncertainties, and divine grace will keep you seeking your fortuitous destination of His perfection.

Only you can navigate the chart of your spiritual essence, and you must always challenge irreverence of truth to achieve superior conductivity in extending His love.

THE TEACHING MISSION

Here's a poet's bleacher-eye view of this discussion ....

by PAT McNELLY

My Brother Talks to Spacemen

My brother talks to visitors who come from outer space.
Or maybe they're just angels, sharing heavenly grace?

Another guess is wise men who hide in time's eclipse; or maybe mighty messengers who come on cosmic ships?

Some say it's only musings of ancient long-lost lore, others think it's spacemen who've come here to our shores.

This universe romancing has captured us in wonder.

Just who speaks through these voices?
These new-age sons of thunder?

Is there some secret message
I'm failing to perceive?
Some major revelation
in which I must believe?

A time to be correcting the errors of the past?
The circuits finally opened,
God's wisdom here at last?

Or maybe the soul's striving to reach out to the stars,
To grow in truth and wisdom
With visitors from afar?

The quarantine is over,
I hear the clarion call,
believe in all the messages,
be rescued from the Fall.

The quiet voice within us
is aching to be heard,
Waiting to make contact,
To let us hear the word.

I know that if I'm patient,
I'll hear my own adjuster,
It'll take an active mindful choice,
And all our faith to muster.

The saints of old are with us still,
their relics cleaned of dust,
I think I'll wait, and celebrate the becoming of the...Us.

Together we can lift the log,
alone we strain and grunt,
we hunt for truth and cosmic game
in everlasting fun.

Believing in Jesus ... Believing He Would Send Teachers

by DAVID JAQUITH

I was about age 18 and attending art school in Los Angeles. During lunch in a park near the school I blurted out to fellow students something about Jesus being the Son of God. One of my classmates replied, "Don't tell me you believe in THAT stuff!"

It was the first time in my young life that I had been challenged about my beliefs. I told him, "Yes, I do." But inside I was shaken. Do I really believe this? Why do I believe it?" Is it because I was taught this by my parents? Is Jesus really the Son of God? Would I get zapped by a thunderbolt if I dared ask the question?

For three days I struggled with it. Finally, I wailed, "God, all I want to know is the truth. Is that so terrible?" In that instant, it was as though the clouds parted and the sun broke through. I heard in my spirit, "David, I honor your search for truth. Ask anything you wish. I am not afraid of your questions."

I thought, A God who is not afraid of my questions! Now there is a God I can trust!

That was over fifty years ago. This encouraging encounter freed my spirit to go in search for what is real to me. It has been my anchor through all the glorious mountain peaks, the dry barren plains and shadowy valleys. It brought me in 1972 to the life affirming teaching of the FER I have been led, faith unshaken, through all the skeptics, all the pouncers, pronouncers and denouncers, the contenders, pretenders and valiant defenders! It brought me into a wide fellowship of what could safely be called a mixed bag of believers. A fellowship sometimes beautiful, sometimes not so pretty, but always a source of wonder and inspiration to this lifetime student of human nature.

Along comes the Teaching Mission. In the beginning I was chief among skeptics. Then the crunch. Was I willing to give it a fair shot—and not prejudice it based on the past? Was I so "fundy" about the Urantia Book that I could leave no room for the supernal planetary ministers to innovate, to adjust their strategy when conditions are open for it? Can truth have a stop? So it was with a mixture of fear and resolve I agreed to transmit for our group, opening the way for others. And so we met the beautiful Ambraisa—that story for another time.

As for fundamentalism—we all have a fundament, those essential truths which, however stated, take

“A Singular Prime Directive” of the Teaching Mission

AARON(transmitted in Pocatello, Idaho, 1999): Greetings, friends. This is Aaron. Tonight I would like to discuss with you certain perspectives regarding how you may look at your purposes, not only here in communication with us, but also the motivations which guide you in life.

You may question at times why it is so difficult to perceive our influence. We recognize that in varying degrees you strive to understand our presence and to perceive the insight we offer, sometimes to come up frustrated and feeling as though you are missing some connection.

Recognize that we have a singular, prime directive, which supercedes all other efforts we might make regarding this planet and the mortals here. This prime directive is the attunement of your thought us safely home.

Some of my essentials: Be not anxious. Fear Not. Rejoice. My peace I give unto you. The Father knows the desires of your heart. Love God mightily. Love the unloveable, see them flower. Love one another as I have always loved you and ever shall.

Let me share this, from a recent early morning quiet time:

“You may learn of God through others who know something of who He is; but you can of yourself come truly to know him only as you begin ardently to love him. Erase then the distance. Close the gap, enter, and be entered. Be enveloped in a most holy love, and as you are filled, go forth and likewise love as you live you life in loving service, for in such love is the beauty of the earth and the glory of the skies.

processes into alignment such that you are more receptive to recognizing the ministrations of your indwelling Spirit.

The awareness that the correcting time is occurring brought fascination on your world to those involved; amazement, wonder, excitement, joy, in the idea of reclamation. Suddenly minds were astir. And many people began to think of all the possibilities why we would come to serve here on your world this way. Many ideas have surfaced that have been popular. And sometimes confusion has occurred; such that, amid these expectations, disillusionment and frustration resulted causing persons to slip away for lack of real understanding or sensitivity to the underlying mission: to facilitate comprehension of the foremost spiritual reality residing in your mind.

When you personally think of how you may best serve God, what sorts of thoughts come to your mind? Do you think of telling others what you have learned, or writing a book? Talking to groups? Providing papers with our words? Evangelizing? Or do you recognize, perhaps more now than earlier in your association with us, that you best serve your maker by striving to know God and thereby allowing his presence to manifest in your life those things which God would have known to others through you. Inward is the path to truest service for others rather than trying to create fantastic possibilities of service.

If you would each dedicate yourself to the inner life with God, the manifestation of service possibilities will arise beyond your imaginations! You will do that which God would have you do.

And therein lies the perspective that we would most like to have you understand as you proceed forth. The many happenings on your world are beneficial, all ideas for God have value, but the greatest production, the highest awareness, will come from seeking to do what your inner relationship tells you. I hope these thoughts tonight have allowed you some perspective. And I thank you for listening.

To TR or not to TR ... the Teachers and our Indwelling Spirits

by CALVIN McKEE
from the Woods Cross, Utah
Teaching Mission group

In the first days, it was first thought of as only a ‘special few’ were to have this T/Ring ability. Then, it seemed everyone in the groups were asking for personal teachers, and trying to transmit. I remember Ham clearly saying that it was not at all a focus for us to have teacher contact, but increased Father contact. Some were more ‘wired’ for this ‘receiving’ than others. From my experience, those with a calm mind and little or no self agenda, were more ‘TR-able,’ as is presented in the UB about the mind of the mortal host which was used in the transmissions of the Urantia Papers.

Also, I wish to present a few thoughts on this line from the Urantia Papers. I will present two paragraphs and then follow with my viewpoint...

“What the Thought Adjuster cannot utilize in your present life, those truths which he cannot successfully “transmit” to the man of his betrothal, he will faithfully preserve for use in the next stage of existence, just as he now carries over from circle to circle those items which he fails to register in the experience of the human subject, owing to the creature's inability, or failure, to give a sufficient degree of cooperation.

THE TEACHING MISSION: Transmitting and your Indwelling Spirit/Thought Adjuster

“Adjusters are able to receive the continuous stream of cosmic intelligence coming in over the master circuits of time and space; they are in full touch with the spirit intelligence and energy of the universes. But these mighty indwellers are unable to transmit very much of this wealth of wisdom and truth to the minds of their mortal subjects because of the lack of commonness of nature and the absence of responsive recognition.

To me, these passages are stating that there is much presented to the mortal mind from other cosmic intelligences and spirit entities. The Thought Adjuster is the gatekeeper which allows or presents this cosmic information to the mortal mind.

Our minds, the gift of the Universe Mother, is the antenna; the brain, our physical gift of the Creator Son, is the radio—the mechanism for presentation; and out Thought Adjuster is the interpreter which translates to understandable consciousness as we gain “responsive recognition” and “choose to give a sufficient degree of cooperation.” And, that which we cannot handle in this life will in time be let in — transmitted from superconsciousness to consciousness.

In short... yes, Thought Adjuster activity is our hope and goal. But the Thought Adjuster also presents messages from our Teachers and other ‘celestial entities’ — messages to the cosmic mind. As described on the bottom of UB 1257 and the top of 1258 ...

“These mortal reservists are chosen by the corps to which they are respectively attached and are likewise trained and rehearsed in the deep mind by the combined technique of Thought Adjuster and seraphic guardian ministry. Many times numerous other celestial personalities participate in this unconscious training, and in all this special preparation the midwayers perform valuable and indispensable services.”

(If I understand this correctly, we are talking about the assistance of the midwayers, guardians and “other celestial personalities” all in participation and full cooperation with and through our Thought Adjusters.)

Q: What is it that the midwayers do? According to this passage on 1258, the reserve corps members have perhaps the best of mortal Thought Adjuster contact, and ... “The men and women of these reserve corps of destiny thus have various degrees of contact with their Adjusters through the intervening ministry of the midway creatures...”

“On many worlds the better adapted secondary midway creatures are able to attain varying degrees of contact with the Thought Adjusters of certain favorably constituted mortals through the skillful penetration of the minds of the latter's indwelling. (And it was by just such a fortuitous combination of cosmic adjustments that these revelations were materialized in the English language on Urantia.) Such potential contact mortals of the evolutionary worlds are mobilized in the numerous reserve corps, and it is, to a certain extent, through these small groups of forward-looking personalities that spiritual civilization is advanced and the Most Highs are able to rule in the kingdoms of men. The men and women of these reserve corps of destiny thus have various degrees of contact with their Adjusters through the intervening ministry of the midway creatures...”

Yes! Communion with the Universal Father is the TR Objective

by EUGENIA BRYAN

I fully agree with you, Calvin, when you point out that the focus of the Teaching Mission is to have increased Father contact. Teacher contact is an adjunct, an aid to assisting us to clear ourselves of erroneous thought and behaviors such that we can have this enhanced contact with the Father. The teachers tell us this in many, many different ways. They give us exercises to expand our abilities to commune with the Father and they continuously encourage stillness practice. Their actions bear out the truth of Ham's statement.

And didn't Jesus give his apostles the same message on many, many different occasions? That is the objective of the Teaching Mission—communion with the Father in order that our will is relinquished to His will! TRing is very helpful and is most interesting as a topic but we are misled when we think that it is anything more than a tool in our efforts to know God and become more and more like Him.

Once we have “gotten the hang” of connecting with the Father one on one, we want more and more of it!! And it becomes much easier to focus on this relationship as Jesus demonstrated so well for us.

Our Participation in the Teaching Mission ... Olfana

Posted by: SUSAN KIMSEY
Half Moon Bay, CA

OLFANA: You participate in the Teaching Mission based on your own desires, sense of truth, and God-Led inclinations. This is appropriate behavior on your part. We wish you to seek out this experience, always, from a freewill choice made by you, in conjunction with the promptings of your Thought Adjuster. We wish to discuss concepts of commitment and intention. Do you approach this work of the Mission with a desire to serve, a desire to seek the Father's Will in your efforts? Always, this is the foundation that we desire for your efforts to be built upon.

Let yourselves relax with all concerns regarding the outcome of this work. This is in God's Hands! He will choose the pattern by which your efforts will blend together into a creative masterpiece of healing for this planet.

For now, you need only concern yourselves with the "beginnings" of this work. We will be with you in this effort! We know the challenges you face, and we will work with you to create successful experiences for those who seek a path to God with us.

Let yourselves remember the Master's model. He worked with the event of the moment. He presented himself as a model of patient trust in his God-led choices. He stands before us now—calmly, patiently, and with love—asking us to seek Him, asking us to also serve as guides for those who are not yet clearly drawn to His Truth.

You can serve best by holding the image of the Master in your mind, and allow his strength and wisdom to permeate your own being. From this, derive your own motivation in this work. Thoughts of stress, fear, anger—all these disquieting thoughts are provocations of your ego. This is not the guide you seek. Let yourself be drawn forward, toward the light of truth, by your trusting heart. That is where the true guidance comes from!

You will grow appropriately, if you remember that there are always seasons to growth, and this is a time of new, tender branches forming, which seek the light. Branch out now with a sense that you are tenderly protected in the Garden of God. Extend yourself with a sense that you can grow strong, and eventually provide a sense of protective shade and shelter for others, who can grow in your own area of growth..

Remember that a plant grows healthy by being cultivated. You must attend to your own cultivation. This means you must receive the nourishment of the knowledge presented to you in this Mission. The energy of the sun shining down upon you is an image of God's Protective Energy which fills your being. The pattern of germination, growth, change, evolution, is naturally within the plant, and as within your soul growth, the direction for your soul's pattern of evolution comes from the Thought Adjuster.

This is not yet the time to produce more "seeds" for further germination. You must first develop your own being, discern your own pattern of growth. Then, indeed, you will become like the plant which first produces blossoms ... that then become seed pods ... that then disperse this pattern of growth in many other areas.

SOUL RISING

by Jim Cleveland

My soul seems sometimes like the mountains high and mighty but very distant from where I stand soaring high and cold and far above my reach down here end of a journey that is taken by every man.

*My soul rings loud from spirit clouds while earthbound people toil to find the passage that will open them to light washed in goodness, grace and giving in our every day
Still I walk the barefoot path in tears of night*

My soul called softly to me and the Master's hand reached out just like a shepherd and showed the way up into the clouds of misty, soothing, spirit land through to sunshine clear and brightening o'er the day

*Soul rise, Rise and lift us up in gentle breath of life.
Rise higher;
Soar me o'er this land of trouble, trial and strife
Rise onward,
Up to open Heaven's gate to fields of dreams
Soar higher,
Embrace all who left before us in loving streams
Souls expanding,
Into the heart of Father's plan for you and me
My soul is moving now,
To find the wings of graceful splendor that sets me free.*

THE CELESTIAL CONTACT BOOKSHELF

SOME SHARINGS by ESTHER WOOD

I would like to share several books that I have sitting on my shelves. I have pulled some random samples from them for your consideration of the Teachers that claim to be Jesus, God, or Superhuman. I think this should show you that kernels of Truth are everywhere, if you have eyes to see, and ears to hear. I think it is also important to keep a healthy perspective. Find God in your own center, and remember that anything humans touch is imperfect.

"The Jesus Letters," published in 1979 by two ladies, Jane Palzere and Anna C. Brown. They claim that Jesus personally spoke through them, and they were to share what they had received.

An excerpt: "My father watches over all of you and there is nothing to fear. Yet you have stabbings and shootings and people hungry and you wonder why you must have these things. Why should the poor always be with you? Because there are those who are not evolved enough to hear my message. Man evolves from lowest to highest. The poor in spirit limit themselves so that they are poor in everything. But your armor is my presence in your life. Know that wherever you are, I am."

"New Teachings for an Awakening Humanity," 1986, by The Christ through Virginia Essene. She has founded the Love Corp Network for providing seminars and soul readings in an effort to create peace on our planet.

A sample: "Ask to become an instrument of love and peace. And meditate to receive the support we offer. Why else, children of the light, did you come? Fill your mind and consciousness with something worth having! And from your mind will come loving activities that make life more enjoyable and dear for you, for all life on the planet, for earth itself, and for your brothers and sisters in space. Heed these words which have come to humanity ... Stop this preoccupation with sub-human thoughts and activities or be willing to bear the consequences of your choice."

"Right Use of Will," 1984, God; received by Ceanne DeRohan. She says that God has given each individual part of His Consciousness with which to be aware of himself, and part of His Will with which to experience himself. Hear this voice: "I gave the ability to manifest unconditional Love to every Spirit that would accept it from Me. Some refused to accept this gift from me, and it is mainly these Spirits who themselves refused to accept unconditional Love that have been claiming unconditional Love is only possible for Me and a very few of My closest Created Spirits."

"Emmanuel's Book," 1985, Emmanuel; channeled by Pat Rodegast. This one is a little different in that the 'author' is a 'lesser' teacher than God or Jesus. It is more of a poetic nature.

"You pray by touching the deepest part of you that longs, that needs, that Is.
Let it speak in its own language, more often than not without words."

"Prayer is to assure you of your connection with Home, much as when you were children and you left for the day.

There was that moment of panic. I'm sure you remember it --when you had to call home just to be sure that it was still there.

Prayer is like that. It is calling Home."

THE PLEIADIANS

Good will ambassadors from The Pleiades were introduced to us in the book, "Bringers of the Dawn," in which channel Barbara Marciniak brings forth messages with strong spiritual ideas and insights. From this growing body of work, here is a conversation with the Pleiadians taken from the tape, "The Mind Game and Patterns."

THE PLEIADIANS: You have heard us say that all is true according to the perception, and [that] reality is far beyond what you can conceive of. There is a vastness that is ever growing and expanding. There have been on your planet quite a few humanities who have figured out the rules and have learned a little bit better than other humanities how to create, how to bring about what they are wanting and how to become manipulators, rulers, and designers of the game themselves.

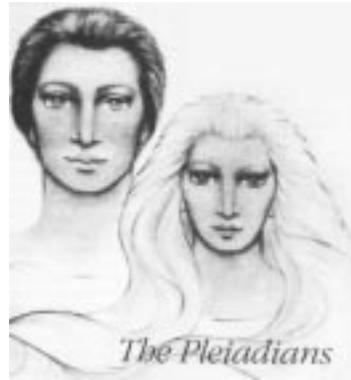

Your planet started off with a certain plan in mind. That plan was to design a new world where there would be great exchanges of information. The great computer-like mind connected a crystal network of information that would beam out in this galaxy as a storehouse perhaps. It was an exchange center. A world was designed that was beautiful because this information was going to be held in the cells of each and every creature and molecule of consciousness that existed here. Consciousness was going to be endowed within all things.

In the vast expansion of creation, many different forms of sentient beings exist. They are all playing what you would call the mind game. The Prime Creator, First Cause, was, or so it seems, the originator of the mind game.

The Prime Creator thought itself into a reflected state and moved so that it could see itself, so that it could prove to itself it existed. It created outside of itself. So the game has gone. Even the Prime Creator continuously surprises itself with the new rules and the new possibilities of this substance that has been endowed with consciousness.

The forms of this substance continuously mutate and change and even the smallest portion of being has new potentials. Within this mind game that all existence plays, the rules constantly change. That is part of the game.

What is occurring on the planet at this time is that you are being instructed and given information because the rules have changed. It is time for large numbers of humanity to call on their own innate knowing, to bring about their own beautification of development, to step wisely and to learn to play with all of the abilities.

An artist's concept

You have heard us [say] to become aware of what you present to yourselves. Every portion of the material that is outside of you determines how you are going to feel and how you are going to set the parameters of your experience and what you are going to allow yourselves to put within your lives. What you see is determined by what you believe is possible. You are in a double bind so to speak, for you wish to change what you believe to be possible about yourselves and yet you do not quite know how to change what you are perceiving.

Codings are inside of each and every one of you. [They] are being reactivated by some of those ancient creators who brought your planet into being when they were playing with their own godhood. There have been many struggles over the territory of this, your Earth Sphere, Terra. Many have come here and reigned and have utilized the rules of the game and developed societies according to how they wished humanities to perceive.

You have been very often the product of a few individuals designing the mass humanity experience. Once again you are involved in this. This time, you are being told that you can be liberated through your own thinking and through your own perceptive abilities. We wish to push you further into this so that you can truly realize what your boundaries are and realize that every portion is part of the game.

QUESTION: Do these creators compete against each other and have their creations make war on each other?

PLEIADIANS: There have been competitions. There have been vast amounts of information kept from the public for eons. There have been humanities who have known the capabilities of mankind. You find yourself attempting to expand your capabilities, yet you fight and deny that you even have them.

The time has come for you to tap into this. Those greater humanities who you have called gods, those more expanded beings, have indeed made their own rules for the mind game. Within those rules they designed societies where mankind was not encouraged to a state of independence. Think about the history of your world for the last

2,000 of your years and look at the different societies. What did these societies do? How many encouraged freedom? How many encouraged independence? How many societies work with the idea of suppression?

You have heard us say that you live in the United States, the land of the free, or so you think. We are not here to start a revolution, we are here to expand what you believe to be possible and to assist you in your own growth and to turn you ultimately to yourselves and your own answers. There is nothing more to believe in than yourself.

When you believe in a God that is so outside of yourself you are not acknowledging the God that is within you, that has been your birthright. This is a major state of awareness for each and every one of you to move into the holiness of your own being. Each and every one of you are all that you need to believe in. When you believe in yourself, expand what you think you are, you begin to learn the rules of the great mind game and then you are up there with the big guys.

QUESTION: I have been in a massive state of confusion, going back and forth from one belief system to another.

PLEIADIANS: When you are about to make a change, in general, you will go through a bit of disorientation so that you can come to a greater understanding of yourself. Also the disorientation has to do with the releasing of old behavior, with the relinquishing of control, because wherever you are, in whatever state of development, there is a certain amount of control. The control forms the boundaries of what you think is safe behavior, and safe avenues to traverse. So when you are about to make a change you have to allow that to come down and reevaluate what you think is okay for you as humanities to do. And you become impatient and you cannot understand why it has taken you a long period of time to move from one state to another. It is quite simple. You are not making the decision.

The ideas that you are sending out to yourself are not clear. It may seem to you that it is clear. You do not understand how intricate your thoughts are and you think you make one statement and this is going to create and you can forget about it and make all the other statements that are going to uncreate it. Only you do not hear those. Your thoughts are like fog and they seep out from you into all forms. And they always seek to expand, to be out there in territory. So, when you are not certain about what you are wanting, you are not giving out a one-lined direction.

The energies at this time are becoming really very powerful, very highly charged. You are learning that there is a certain intensity of commitment that is going to be needed to lift yourself into higher states of consciousness. All of your thoughts count. If all of your thoughts are not lined up to your greatest intention, you are not going to get there, not in completeness. You all need to learn how to trust yourselves, how to have a greater love for yourselves and, of course, much more joy. Learn to utilize the greater vehicles that you have to keep you within a balance so that you can move at these great speeds. When you do not have balance you are not going to move forward with acceleration. You will crash.

Many of you have bumped the heads and bumped the psyches because you have gone after something that you thought that you wanted and have not understood the rules of the game. Or you have sabotaged your own rule making by thinking that you were not powerful enough, or looking to others as being such great humanities, or thinking that you were not worthy of what you were after. The kicks you get out of talking about it [are more exciting] than it would be to manifest it.

It is most interesting. What is happening on your planet at this time really makes it an "in" place to be. If there were a People magazine for the cosmos, the Earth Sphere Terra would be on the cover. And you all are stars. So, live it up. Be alive because that is what it is all about. Wherever you go and whatever state of consciousness you are in, there is going to be stuff to learn. As you learn how to utilize the rules here, then you would be changing the game for all of the other players. As you all become awake, you will be bucking the system. And you will be showing that the rules indeed have changed, that even the most minute forms of consciousness have figured out that they are like the gods.

QUESTION: What kind of freedom do we need to seek?

PLEIADIANS: When you are seeking freedom it is a freedom from expectations. Many humanities, just as you, have figured that out because word has been passed down on your planet and secret societies have known for eons many of the rules, so to speak. Many who learned how to play the games kept freedom as a precious food from reach of the majority of humanity.

They called it by mysterious names and they said that humanity would not know what to do with this if they have this. And so they kept it for themselves. So, when we say to you to seek freedom, it is freedom from anything that is going to define and suppress any of your ability that would limit you. Stay within that freedom, move outward in all that you would affect within your life experience and your reality to extend that freedom outward to others as well. There are no limitations.

QUESTION: How far is it possible to jump from the level we are now?

PLEIADIANS: A tremendous amount can be figured out from here. In a very short period of time, the large majority of you will have made a gigantic leap. Within one, perhaps two of your years, there [are] going to be abilities to perceive in vastly different fashions.

Even now you are learning how to expand as you have seeded yourself with light and as you begin to listen to the internal self. Many of you are too intellectual with this. You are all “up here” and you are all afraid to be “down here” because this is where you are going to feel. You are going to connect your feeling and you are going to develop a compassion. Then you would move into these realms.

They are not thinking realms. They are realms of the highest connection of spirituality. And they would keep you tethered to great beings of light who would communicate with you as they are building light bridges to you at this time. You have no idea of what is possible. Your mind cannot conceive of what is possible for your lifetimes.

We have recently spoken that something that is going to be and is available for all of you is what we call the immortality of your being the ability to extend life and to stop your nonsense of labeling a programmed degeneration of the body. That is part of the game.

That is a flexible rule. Why do you determine that you are getting older? Why do you determine that the body loses with age? Because a certain sector of society passed on a rule of the game. Someone wanted to have power and make money and make up a portion of the game that was called health.

Everything is the game and you buy into every portion of the game. We [get] you very stirred up so that you won't be buying anyone's game but your own. You can learn to work with one another for support to make up the rules of your own game and then you will set things flying. You are unlimited beings. That is the great joy that you are experiencing. This is why you have all come here. To participate in that. To remember it.

Many humanities on your planet are going through times of great difficulty right now because energies are changing and there are certain beliefs that are smacking them in the face. You have heard us say that electromagnetic energy has completely changed on your planet and all has been sped up within the cosmos because of the movement of your universe into the new area of space.

You are being charged by new particles of existence. This is bringing about the shift in consciousness. It is this that makes all things different, that makes all things possible now. This is what is ringing out within your souls to satisfy and to describe and many who you study and who you read about are all telling you the same thing. They may use different words.

All you need to do is have the lights begin to go off in your head. It does not matter whose words say them to you for you have all the information stored within you. What you are merely doing is exposing yourself to certain triggers that you have set up in the outside world to bring about the activation of certain patterns within you. You do not have to get into a big sweat about the whole thing, you know. You are working towards it. You are only a few steps away from certain amounts of great changes. You will be awed by those and you will be excited and then you will move into boredom once again and you will be wishing for new abilities. You are moving quickly now.

Think about what you have done in a few of your years. Think about when you all were at the beginning of [the 1980's], what you knew, how you felt about yourselves, what was possible. And think about where you were one year ago and what you know now. You are definitely moving.

QUESTION: What's the difference between the old rules and new rules?

PLEIADIANS: There existed in what you would call biblical times, certain entities that came to your planet that were playing. They knew the rules were that if you created and if you sent out certain ideas you could get masses of consciousness to follow this action. So these entities came to your planet and they affected cultures. They played with the alteration of your DNA and formed new men out of the basic Earth stock that existed here at different times. These entities sojourned and are written about in your Bible. They affected mankind through the ways that you are presently feeling the results of. The old rules were that this was a territory for what you would call certain skylords.

These skylords made the rules. The rules were that humanities would worship those that were in the sky and that they would develop all sorts of expression of this worship. They would be given an endowment of themselves but they would not be given the complete information because then, who would they play with? There were other skylords who wanted these humanities to have a decent game to be playing in. And so there has been a challenge on your Earth Sphere Terra as to the type of information that has come in to allow these humanities to perceive what they can be. The old rules were that the large majority of humanities were not given the understanding of who they were. They were kept in ignorance. They were kept in darkness. They were kept in submis-

GALACTIC CONNECTIONS with the Galactic Federation

by Sheldan Nidle
Founder of the Planetary Activation Organization

We have to see all the things that are now happening as very interconnected and quite representative of a profound holistic pattern that the Supreme Creator is weaving for us. This divine plan is being unraveled before us in a most incredible and wise way. Each move is being made like the moves of a most enlightened chess master. Each step has a meaning that exists on many levels at once. Every move is designed to impress each of us toward one wonderful goal; first contact with our ancestors and our galactic brothers and sisters. This path leads toward a deep reflection into the true meanings of the human soul and how this truth forms the basis of who we truly are. For this underlying truth is the foundation for all knowledge. We are all seekers of what is real and of how this reality forms the basis for all things that exist in Creation. We all endeavor in some way to amalgamate our truths with the profound ways of the Supreme Creator. Now is the time when this wish shall be granted not just to a select few, but to all of us.

We are now in the interim period before a first contact is attempted between us and the member star nations of the Galactic Federation. What it means to us is that we are now on the verge of a new global society that will allow us to finally see who we really are. Many scholars have attempted to discover the inner meanings of what this thing we call civilization is really based on. The final conclusion that this organization will attempt to demonstrate is that we are really a star seed society, founded as part of a divine plan that has led us down a side road for many, many millennia. Now, we have been put on a detour that will take us back to the main highway and permit us to see our true place in the galaxy. Our time of quarantine is just about over. The means to that now-hidden knowledge lies in the genetic research that permits us to see all life, and especially human life, as founded in a three-stranded DNA protein. This three-stranded protein serves as the basis for our physical existence. This important discovery allows us to see that the road back to the full integration of our spiritual and physical selves is not as distant as we would believe. The clue to this endeavor lies in a new approach to biology ; quantum biology. This new form of biology sanctions the relationship between thought and body.

Quantum biology states that the energy of thought can alter body cells, change metabolism, and most importantly, transform RNA/DNA. Consciousness can now be scientifically seen to create changes in our physical reality. The most important aspect of this discovery deals with human gene structure. Geneticists have noticed in the past half-decade that humans have been using the third strand in their RNA/DNA to mutate into a more profound being. Many children born with connected three-strand DNA have some wondrous abilities. These capabilities have included the ability to be telepathic, to disappear and reappear at will (teleport), and to move an object of some weight easily across rooms. It now appears that we are changing into a much more conscious being. In addition, the number of beings modified in one way or another has increased exponentially in the last three years. Clearly, we are a species undergoing a most profound shift in our reality.

Not only have our bodies changed, but we have also become more aware of the spiritual side of our nature. This spiritual awareness has led to an increase in our study of subjects that previously seemed either too strange or too profound to undertake. This study has led humanity to an interest in Angels, UFOs and the extraterrestrial origins of all life on Earth. We seem to have a deep desire to learn how one relates to the other. Yet there seems to be an endless series of beliefs that are put forth trying to explain this aspect of human knowledge.

To these bailiffs, I would like to add one more caveat; think on these subjects with your heart, and not with your head. The waters of knowledge that you are now entering are based on sensation, on passion, and on the truth of your intuitive soul. It is a most profound shift for our present civilization. One reality is being squeezed into making another, in a very short time. For our planet is now on the verge of a transfer into a new fourth-dimensional reality. This reality will lead us into learning more about ourselves than we have ever thought possible.

As the profound changes have increased in their intensity, we have been forced to accept that something quite fundamental is happening to us. Also, time is beginning to be compressed. A by-product of this compression is that our karma cycles have been greatly accelerated. One of the things that you have probably noticed is that when any karma is created, it is swiftly alleviated. Often this action happens hours or days after the initial incident occurs. We are in a reality that is quickly being altered into something quite different from what we are used to. Another change is that the yearly time-line is also accelerating. Many persons who study time have noticed that recently, years have been reduced seemingly to months. In this regard, many psychics who have encountered the year 2012 AD have noticed that it contains a block around the magical date of December 21, 2012. This date is the one picked by the Mayan calendar as the end of time on this planet as we now know it! These coincidences point to the fact that this period is one in which our planet is moving towards a new reality.

Cosmology has been discovering that the physical universe does not always obey the presently-known laws of physics. Energies, gas clouds and even galaxies do some quite strange things. On a similar note, the same paradoxes exist in the world of sub-atomic physics. The hand of universal knowledge seems to be leading us to a new concept of reality. This subject has been at the forefront of discussion among scientists for the past decade. Yet the form of the “cover-up” to maintain the old orthodoxy has kept these matters from becoming public knowledge. Everywhere, the old order of power has tried to maintain a facade that all is as it ever was. Yet there is much in the new secret discoveries that make many scientists almost bold enough to let the “cat out of the bag”. From what I have heard, there will be more scientists by this Winter/Spring of 1997-98** who will be willing to start to tell their tales of what is really happening, both out in the heavens and in the atmosphere, continents and oceans of planet Earth. These tales will be another factor in finally allowing Earth’s citizens to see the truth and prepare for our inevitable contact with the ETs.

It is the purpose of this organization to bring you up-to-date; to reveal what is happening out there in the heavens that surround us; and to advise you on how to take action to prepare yourself for a new reality and first contact with the Galactic Federation. We are all together in the need to see that we are all ONE, and that what is happening, is happening to all of us. Let me close with blessings of love and light to you all. Selamat Ja! sion. You were kept from ultimately understanding who you were.

The new rules are that all is allowed. You are being blown wide open so to speak. The gates have been opened and it is fine for you to know your ultimate experience with creation. Do you know who changed those rules? You did. After sojourning here for thousands of times, you figured it out. This time was designed for you so you could bring about what it is that you have been after from the beginning.

One of the main rules, the one that you all are attempting to figure out and put into being is the idea of thought manifestation that you are a result of your thoughts. That is the one that is most important for you to learn at this moment. Not to wait for great beings to come from the sky to save you. You argue for your limitations. You hold onto them. You clutch them dearly like little dollies that you played with when you were young.

QUESTION: What about the dilemma of getting to know yourself and not liking what you see?

PLEIADIANS: It is an excellent point the dilemma of getting to know oneself, which comes with developing self-awareness and self-esteem, and not liking what one sees. Change it. What you are seeing is only your judgment anyway. You all love to call yourselves right or wrong. “I am beautiful today,” and the next day, “I am what the cat dragged in.” You do this to yourselves back and forth, all the time. Why judge it?

You are learning. You are on your journey and you are feeling that certain expressions of behavior and experience give you exhilarations and others make you want to turn your head. When you are finding this within yourself you are allowing yourself to develop along a pathway. If you are finding that there is a portion of yourself that you do not like, allow yourself to love that portion and to release it. If you don’t like a part of yourself then let it go.

Utilize the rules and make a new you. Change your behavior. Believe that you can change a portion of yourself. But don’t release it out of hatred or anger. Allow yourself to realize that whatever it is that you are perceiving that you did not particularly approve of, you birthed it into being. Let it go. Do not tether it to yourself any longer.

It is not that you are going to always love every portion of yourself for you are teaching yourselves and you are bound to run across something that is going to get your attention. It is a message to gather more information and ultimately give you more compassion for others. So, be more easy on yourselves.

Until you love yourself, you are not going to experience love from anywhere else. This light energy that is being sent to you and this light energy that permeates existence, is made up of love. It is a substance of being that permeates all things. If your scientists were to break down the particles of the most minute aspect of existence to find out what makes everything go and everything tick, it is love. It’s what connects you. It is what keeps you alive.

Start with yourselves. Realize that in this game you picked yourselves. You picked yourselves to be the player that you would move around in this aspect of existence. When you don’t accept responsibility for the player that you picked, you deny your participation in the game. And so you are moved across the board of life without any control, always looking to connect with love and never realizing that in order to connect with love you must turn on your own light, which is turned on with self-love. When you turn on your own light by loving (Continued on page 32)

Contact of the Divine Kind

by Allen Wolf

One night, after reading a bit in my favorite book of spiritual inspiration, I was sitting on my bed, in silent, still, thanks and openness, just practicing being fully in God's presence. Suddenly, I felt, more clearly than I ever had before, Jesus' personal presence there with me in the room.

I personally consider Jesus to be the greatest example in our history of a truth-knowing, God-sharing person, but I felt very comfortable in his presence there in my room. It was if we were life-long friends! I sensed that he was there to answer a question I had on my mind, so I asked him if he were coming again to us soon, as many people hoped, to help us all find our way to spiritual unity, world-wide. His loving, definite, clearly communicated response to me, was: "I will be returning, as I promised— but not yet. In the meantime, I'm sending others in my stead. There will soon be an incarnated unanimity of spirit around the globe."

That was the beginning. Messages started coming to me the next day and continued for quite some time. I'd receive these messages at various times: when I was totally relaxed, and just enjoying being alive in the moment; while in the midst of my fairly normal life's activities; while thinking about my various little problems and concerns; and as I took my daily meditative walk, attempting to get myself into a state of thankful, humble understanding, and loving communion with God.

"Out of the blue," these totally unexpected, clear, and precise messages would come to me. They were much like listening to that "quiet inner voice," except these messages were unmistakably direct and filled with intensity. The messages were not audible, but were "just there" somehow, clearly in my mind, like instantaneous, intimate telepathy, and behind them all I was aware of a definite, new, personal, spiritual-presence. A presence whose energies radiated calmness, knowing reassurance, and a smile of joyous spiritual excitement.

This clearly loving, spiritual presence said to me, over and over, regularly, day after day, in slightly different ways, yet always basically the same, "I'm coming! I'm coming to you all soon! In your time soon! I'm coming!"

I asked repeatedly who, or what, this was... what the message meant and what was I to do with this? — Was I imagining, wish-fulfilling, going nuts or hallucinating?!— But all I would get in response was a joyous (bordering on laughing), loving, friendly, comforting, yet completely serious: "I'm coming! In your time, I'm coming. In fact, I'm already on my way!" And, "All that's been promised is now happening. It's started. It's time now— The time is now."

When I asked for more details, the response was, "The specifics and exact time-lines are still not known, even to me. But it's all going to happen, it's simply a matter of when." And another time, "Things are starting to come to fruition even now." On another occasion, "I'm coming to you soon; in your time-conceptions of 'soon'. My mission's now been fully approved." On still another, "I'm coming, you know that— I'm coming to you all soon!"

This went on for several weeks, almost every day, while I at times, of course, questioned my own sanity... but at the same time, I grew tremendously in my own personal understanding of the possibilities and realities of the world of the spirit.

I told no one what I was going through, because I really didn't know yet whether or not this was a purely personal spiritual experience, between God and me alone, and not necessarily relevant to others and their understanding of truth.

But then one freezing, cloudy-grey, sleet-threatening, winter's day, as I was heading back home after a walk through my favorite cow pasture, during which I stood there literally crying out to God, looking up to the skies begging for assistance in understanding just what I was going through... I was suddenly stopped in my tracks by a powerful, awe-inspiring, very real spiritual presence. It was, beyond doubt, a definite God-presence, of complete love and understanding, that from within and above somehow, entirely overwhelmed me with the powerful and obvious living reality of the inherent interrelatedness of all life and earthly reality around me — as well as myself — with God, love, truth, and the rest of the universe.

It felt like my spine, whole person and being was being infused from above, moment by eternal moment, with shooting, swirling, yellow-gold bright particle-rays, of completely conscious, all-knowing, compassionate, communicating, living light! In that moment, however long I stood there in "normal: earth-time (I have no idea), I was directly connected to and part of everything ... just as everything was equally connected to and part of me. The world and everything in it; life as a whole, both worldly and purely of the spirit... all without question, were One.

Awed like I've never been before, my whole body, completely straight and alert in the moment, to the sacred and eternal life-essence all around and in me, felt utterly alive, filled, and expanded five or six feet beyond my physical body, in all directions. I was very soon shaking uncontrollably, and tears of joy were rolling down my face in the cold winter air.

But I also clearly felt this personal God-presence with me, somehow both within me and yet off to the side a bit of all this interconnecting, swirling, yellow-gold living light.. and I immediately recognized that there, staying with me, throughout my experience (however long it lasted – it felt like eternity!), was the familiar, loving, spirit-personality who had been communicating with me regularly for weeks now, with those clear, smiling messages of, “I’m coming!”

Up until this moment, I had only known this presence as one, which felt to me, like a being with vast understanding and advanced experience, representing some higher level of reality...or God. Now, in this moment, I realized clearly that this personal presence, most obviously to me, was that of a new, great spiritual Teacher of truth and of God, being sent to us all now directly from and by God, to help us world-wide in our search for: greater understanding; for loving, compassionate living; and for spiritual unity.

It didn't feel like the spirit-presence of Jesus, though close, or that of our Father or Mother, though also close. The personal presence was overwhelming filled with love, understanding, compassion and comfort, and with the very real power of direct and immediate knowledge of the universal truth and reality of God. My heightened spiritual awareness told me this was, indeed, a new and direct representative of God— a spiritual Teacher, uplifter and sustainer, for ALL of humanity.

Although I was told a few things directly in words during my experience, most of what was communicated was instantaneously transferred to me, in deep direct understanding, through some sort of immediate telepathy... or through that yellow-gold, swirling sacred light?— I don't really know. But I immediately just knew the answers to many questions and concerns I'd had been stumbling over, off and on for years— about myself, about life, about truth and God, about love and the shape and course of things to come on this world, and more.

But mainly, I knew full well now, with personally experienced, deep direct spirit contact, the truth of what I'd been told repeatedly in those many messages, in weeks prior: That the new spiritual age of this planet is now beginning, and that we're all due, very soon, to witness — and be a part of, as each of us choose — a God-directed, world-wide, coordinated, mission of spiritual uplifting that will include a great personal Teacher of God's truth and love; a Teacher like we've never had before; a direct representative of God, living among us. And this Teacher is coming with associates, both male and female, of similar spirit-understanding and purpose of mission, around the world. It's a unified mission for all of humanity, not just a chosen few, not just for those of any particular religion or specific set of beliefs, and it is not going to be a temporary visit, but will be established over a long period of time.

This soon-coming great spiritual

Teacher, I was told, will be both a leader and example for us spiritually. He will be much like a much wiser, elder brother, a close friend and companion, a guide and spiritual counselor for us all.. Or for anyone willing to listen to and follow the teachings of world-wide spiritual unification presented by he and his associates.

He'll be here to help us, regardless of our individual religious or cultural tradition, learn how to better live with, assist and care for each other; to show us how to reach out and love our neighbors, whoever they may be, more wisely, more fully and consistently; and to lead us, through example, with his personal, strong God-knowing presence; toward becoming more true, actual living reflections of God's love, understanding and compassion.

But before this all comes about, I was led to understand, there is to occur an intensifying of world-wide changes, on many levels, a kind of a transition period, such as many feel we've already begun. We'll witness changes politically, economically, socially, militarily, scientifically, technologically, climatically, geologically, religiously and spiritually, all around the world. Many of these changes have already begun, are increasing and will continue to increase. These changes are necessary to assist us all in being able to wake up from our materialistic stupor, to a deeper understanding of spirit reality... so we can finally start living peacefully and compassionately together world-wide, as the one true family of all humankind.

We must begin to understand the reality of our true earthly brotherhood; the reality of the fatherhood of God; and the reality that Love rules the Universe.

When we begin to learn these realities, it will set the stage for the arrival of this new Teacher and his associates. And though they are here in spirit form now, assisting in these many changes, even they do not know the exact timetable or details of their physical arrival, because this whole process of change, now building world-wide, is completely dependent on our own free-will decisions and actions and our own related processes of opening up to the real understanding of true spiritual living.

But it will happen, and soon — these Teachers' arrival — that's inevitable and decided. It's part of God's will and overall plan.

All of this came clearly, instantaneously confirmed to me during my spiritual visitation/divine contact, there in that frozen cow pasture. I still have no idea how long my experience lasted in "real" time. Time took awhile to come back clearly to me afterwards; though I was, for the most part, easily able to shift focus day by day to continue the responsibility of taking care of all my professional, family and personal, matters. But I certainly did so with quite a different internal perspective than I had previously!

The visitation/contact with the divine was a powerful, intense, personal revelation; one of sure, calm, spiritual- knowing, while at the same time, being one of simply experiencing the overwhelming, direct, personal presence of living Truth.

The overwhelming power of this sudden, unexpected, direct personal experience, given to me that night — the pure, swirling, light; the deep touch of infinite knowing and connecting, with life-essence and

God-presence combined; and the direct communication and contact with a personally, loving, and reassuring spiritual Teacher from, and of, God — remains vivid to me to this day.

I hesitate, still, to allow myself to go back fully into the spiritual state that experience took me to... It was so intense. So far above and beyond "normal" "everyday life.

Eventually, though, that night in the cow pasture, when I knew the visit and direct spiritual contact/revelation experience was about to be over, and the Teacher-presence was about to leave, I asked this God-knowing personal presence specifically, "How will I know you when you arrive? Can you tell me what your name will be?"

His clear worded response was, "You'll know me by my presence. My name will be germane to all."

I received everything I needed!

Sometimes struggles are exactly what we need in our lives. If God allowed us to go through our lives without any obstacles, it would cripple us. We would not be as strong as what we could have been. We could never fly!

I asked for Strength..... And God gave me Difficulties to make me strong.

I asked for Wisdom..... and God gave me Problems to solve.

I asked for Prosperity..... And God gave me Brain and Brawn to work

I asked for Courage..... And God gave me Danger to overcome.

I asked for Love..... And God gave me Troubled people to help.

I asked for Favors..... And God gave me Opportunities.

There had been no indication of what I should or shouldn't "do" in the aftermath of this remarkable experience, so, I asked him, "Can I talk about this?"

He hesitated, seeming almost surprised by my question, and then gave me a simple, clear and firm, reassuring, "Yes."

—And then it was over. Normal everyday "reality" returned all around me, and I wiped my joyous tears away, turned and began my half-stumbling trek across the cow pasture, towards home.

We practice the one true religion of unconditional love. We ever strive to inspire faith and trust in the One Source and in the divine purpose and plan. Our message is always a positive one of hope and affirmation. We encourage your worship of God along the path of your preference, for we have not come to start yet another religion! We ask not to be set apart, idolized or worshipped, but to be respected and seen as your elder brothers and sisters in service to the One God.

6. We are universal ambassadors of peace, peacemakers and peacekeepers. Our spaceships have no defense mechanisms whatsoever. Our commitment to complete harmlessness in thought, word and deed serves as its own protection. We ever encourage unity, harmony and the peaceful co-existence of all.

7. The terms "command" and "commanders" refer to our self-elected duty of being in command of ourself and responsible for our positions of trust and stewardship at the command of the Lord God Most High and the Most Radiant One. (In no way do these terms imply an attitude of militancy.) A true commander walks in a spirit of humility and service in purest attunement to the divine directive.

8. We abide strictly within Confederation policy of noninterference with free will. While we may point out the possible consequences of some of your choices of action, we allow you to live, express and govern your lives and planet as you choose. The only exception would be if your actions could jeopardize survival of your planet and populations a whole or have repercussions throughout the rest of the solar system. We are, however, always available to respond to your specific requests for assistance. We are enthusiastic about joining with you in more conscious interaction and cocreative endeavour.

9. We honor all life and all people as inherently divine. We recognize but one race, the race of humanity - heavenly universal Man.

We celebrate the great diversity within creation and honor all races, colors, creeds and governmental forms which honor individual right to freedom of expression and human rights. We love you unconditionally and hold the vision of Earth and its humanity as living, ascended, whole and joyously radiant in abundance and freedom.

10. We are the guardian action shepherding your Earth. ASH means shepherd, a Melchizedek elder. Ashtar is a code name for the one who oversees as commander the administrative fleets of the Most Radiant One, Sananda. Athena is the counterpart energy of Ashtar and is the aspect often sent forth into objective form to serve by sharing wisdom through teaching and activating the starseed. Thus Ashtar and Athena can function separately or as two rays combined in one form, the code name for this function being Ashtar-Athena; or they can function upon cosmic levels as a vast oversoul consciousness or star family of Ashtar and Athena encodements.

11. We function as units of divine purpose joined by unified intention and total harmony. The status any of us may hold is solely a result of spiritual purity and integration. The same is also true for you. When one is in clear alignment with Source, one becomes a channel or conduit for the flow of greater divine empowerment. When one is clogged with the debris of ego, that divine flow will seek a clearer conduit. Neither we nor our Earth-

SpiritWeb: Networking a spirituality beyond dogma ... into experience

Editor's Note: The author has established one of the largest and best websites in the world for spiritual information. Here, he explains his philosophy and overviews some subjects he finds interesting from his Switzerland base, as you may.

The Discovery of Personal Experience: An introduction to the ongoing webproject called: SpiritWeb.Org

by Rene K. Muller

First of all, I do not claim to give an overview of all spiritual concepts, but of some which I personally feel are sincere and comprehend a part of the bigger reality. What I foremost feature and support are alternative approaches to spirituality, beside the established religions.

A side note; the established religions are valid for the people who are able to relate themselves to a certain view of the world, of God or All-That-Is, but certainly there is a new, but actually an ancient, way to discover spirituality beyond dogmatic scriptures and beliefs, but based on personal experiences.

There is teaching based on fear, controlling and punishment, much of that we have experienced. There is teaching based on love, acceptance and allowance, that's what we yearn to establish.

I support, with SpiritWeb, the way based on Love. I know those are big words, but let me try to do my part. So here we go, a brief overview of spiritual concepts featured on SpiritWeb.Org.:

Channeling is a process of passing information from within yourself, which may be perceived as your inner voice, or if you are more open, may be perceived as spirit-guardians or your Higher-Self (non-embodied Self).

In ancient times this kind of poetry and counseling was well known in the form of prophecies and visions from seers or shamans. Almost every culture knew and counted on these prophecies and visions, and I think they counted on them because they knew they were based on real perception beyond the physical plane. I consider this vision and channeling process worthwhile because it provides an additional point of view from which you can live spirituality. Therefore I give some space for these kinds of messages.

Lightwork is a term that describes a consciousness and spirituality which is lived in daily life, rather than setting aside special days to celebrate dogmatic rituals the way many established religions do.

Lightwork covers a wide range of activities, which may start in small circles doing meditation, discussing concepts and sharing healing energies with each other, and finally activation of places and inner abilities. One well-known activation was Harmonic Convergence 1987, 11:11 and 12:12. Most of such activations have two sides. One side anchors divine energies on the physical plane by uniting thoughts and the will to bring understanding into human consciousness, and the other side enables the people who participate to rediscover, through the activation process, the inner qualities they always had, but covered up by forgetting.

In ancient times, people used to call them gods (elohims) or angels. Today, with the belief-concept of western culture, we use the term extraterrestrials or aliens to describe presences who don't live on Earth, but in other planes, realms or dimensions. We need to recover the mystic side in all of us, since our rational minds have denied it for so long. Our vocabulary is under construction, as we rediscover each part of the other realms consciously, step by step. The UFO-Phenomena and belief-concepts of space brothers/sisters, who are watching over us and offering guidance is a modern expression, whereas the ascended masters is the more traditional expression of discovering the mystical side we all have. Some remain in old, ignoring and rejecting realities, others open themselves to new ones and will have and make their own experiences.

There is life, energy and consciousness, and all three words describe one thing: the Soul, the essence of our divinity. This essence exists in many worlds or dimensions. We all come from the inner worlds, and are embodied in an outer world we call the physical world.

One slice of another dimension is what we call dreams; one step further to control the dreams is called lucid-dreaming; another step is controlling the pass-over from awakened-state to sleep-state to full-consciousness; and one such state of consciousness might be called out-of-body experience (OBE or OOBE) or Soul-Traveling. Beside those concrete techniques, meditation has different meanings. One is a contemplation technique, and another a more spiritual connection that controls the mind with a mantra. Anyway, this all prepares your awareness and inner knowledge to become conscious of some planes with your conscious mind, remembering that you exist simultaneously and multi dimensionally on all planes, and that it is only your attention that relates you to one or another reality or realm.

Reincarnation is a concept that perceives an evolution of the soul on a physical plane. From a higher point of view, we experience all lives simultaneously, and only when we become aware of the portions of our Self that aren't embodied (Holy-Spirit in Christian context, Higher-Self in modern context, Paramatma in Vedic-context), are we able to perceive those other life-experiences. Past or future don't matter; only the body with its mind relates us to a defined space-time. If you are able to perceive in a time-independent way, as the soul does, you are beyond it. One step in this self-realization might be the reality of Reincarnation.

Yoga is a system for realizing your connection to God, which only comes with realization of the Holy-Spirit, Higher-Self or Paramatma (the name depends only on the cultural or religious context you grew up within). Religion has the same meaning as Yoga, but the word "religion" too often is (mis)used, and leaves many people with a bad taste. For most people, Yoga means doing some athletic practices to train the body, but that's Hatha Yoga, where many realizations, from the importance of breathing (i.e., pranayama) to the chakras are taught. There are many additional ways to practice Yoga, and in this section I have tried to provide a kind of overview of "Reconnecting to God", true Yoga, true Religion (without an organized hierarchy or dogmas).

Veda & Dharma, where Veda represents the inner knowledge, and dharma the dedication and reason to live, often called the "meaning of life" in western terminology. I decided to collect some material on this topic because I personally considered the Vedic understanding and view of spirituality to be one of the most profound and complete of the belief-systems that are still present today (versus those many belief-systems that have been lost). My desire is to share some material beyond the somewhat limited Hinduism understanding of the western world.

When Veda means knowing, then everywhere spirituality is practiced is a Vedic culture. The section on Veda & Dharma isn't specific to India, but is a glimpse of a Vedic culture which remained in India the longest time. Needless to say, Vedic culture exists anywhere on Earth where native teaching and spirituality are taught, but in most cases the teaching is fragmented or has nearly disappeared as a result of western influences.

Theosophy, an approach to transform Vedic knowledge into western thinking. There was, and is still, much controversy about its success, but I think it was needed by many people around 1900, when materialism appeared to be the only way of humanity. Theosophy was created by the need to understand mystical teachings, especially the eastern approach to the mystical. It was later enriched and influenced by those individuals who gave Theosophy further expression.

Mysticism is a term which means mystos; keeping silence or myen to be closed (i.e., the eyes or lips), something unspeakable. In the ancient past, much knowledge of a spiritual nature was collected by a master and given to his or her disciples. Most traditions of sharing mysteries were organized into groups with different levels of initiation (priest, priestess, etc). Those titles were used to represent a certain stage of awareness, and weren't really intended to create a hierarchy. But many mystical schools turned into places where hierarchical power battles were played, until they disappeared because of lack of disciples or lost the battle with the power-greedy Christian movement in the Middle Ages. This section within SpiritWeb does try to give an overview of those mainly western mystical schools.

Healing is a term to recover health in a physical sense, that's the usual use of this term, I try to expand this view to an understanding to recover true identity as spirit, where health is an expression of soul-balance. The chakra (Sanskrit for spinning wheels) are the major expression of our spirit through the physical body, and its balance is the key to realize spirit. This can happen without understanding of chakras itself, but it may help to understand more of the relation of the different bodies (physical, astral, emotional, mental).

Astrology is the science of the influence of planets toward individuals and humankind as such. The planets are celestial beings, and those seen with our physical eyes are those beings wearing physical bodies. The planets are a clockwork, where each planet exposes and rediscovers aspects within ourselves. We are not only connected to Earth in ecological terms, but we are connected with the Solar-system and Universe as well. "There is time to do the right thing;" this is astrology.

Those are a few of the areas of interest you will discover when you visit SpiritWeb.Org. It is our desire to offer many aspects and perspectives for your consideration supporting your personal discovery process, if you choose so. Enjoy!

Our Cosmic Connection

The idea of celestial contact seems much more plausible when we see ourselves as citizens of the cosmos, truly interconnected with the universe of universes.

with Angus Bowen

Sometimes the physical/material dominates our lives. Pain, discomfort, fatigue and a general malaise will overwhelm our efforts to remain spiritual. Our very mortal, physical/material realities bring us down from spiritual highs. Sometimes these low points are, in effect, launching pads to newer spiritual highs. Sometimes, though, they are just plain disruptive to any worthy expression, or perceived growth, in our spiritual quest. It is the struggle of our dual nature: material beings indwelt by spirit.

History has shown that one of the best ways to deal with this conflict of our dual natures, is to be still: to meditate, pray, zone-out, relax, listen or, in general terms, quiet ourselves and listen for that “still small voice within.” This procedure varies, depending upon the source. There are variations in the Eastern Indian methods; in the Western Indian methods; and in the “prayer” state of orthodox Judeo/Christian teachings. It would seem that the methodology of achieving a state of contact with renewal, re-energizing and reassurance is only relevant to what works for you. You are, after all, a unique being and what works for you might not work for me. The proscribed methods for reaching this state of stillness should be looked at as suggestions, rather than instructions. The important thing is the practice, itself.

The fact that so many of us realize the benefits of putting ourselves in the path of that supreme resource, the One True Source and Center of everything, gives testimony to our belief and faith in something “higher” than ourselves. Whether we think of it as The Force, Allah, Buddha, God, The Creator, The Father, Yahweh, Jesus, Mohammed, or any of the other myriad human depictions of “it,” many of us acknowledge “its” existence. And many of us have experienced “its” presence. Our experience has gone beyond the intellectual. If we are of a mind to believe that all that is, is not an accident, we can rationalize a motive, or a plan, or at least some sort of intent, to our existence and the existence of all that surrounds, to the far reaches of the most distant star.

We can even make the mental leap to accept that this Source of everything is, indeed, in everything. Thus, we can intellectually believe in our Cosmic Connection. We shall see Science and Religion eventually come together with this hypothesis and the result will be a new, rational understanding, of life itself. This understanding is yet to be universal. We still struggle with the unknown; the unseen; the inexplicable. Yet even when the majority of us on this world understand, in rational terms, the connection between the material and the divine, we will still be located on one world and far removed from all of the realities of an amazingly complex universe. And that means our faith will always be tested, because we can never be everywhere at once. Or know everything. Or experience everything. Just as on this planet, our wisdom will continue to mature as we journey through our extended existence.

Let’s assume that you and I have intellectually accepted our role as cosmic citizens. We are aware that there is some form of philosophy behind our entire existence; regardless of with whom, or from where, this philosophy exists. This mental awareness is sufficient for us to see that there is, or can be, a purpose for our existence. We did not arrive at this level of awareness overnight. If we had not been seeking, searching and soliciting such insight, we would not yet have arrived at the state of being able to rationalize the concept of having a part to play in an overall purposeful design.

Now that we are able to associate ourselves with everything in general, we come to the more difficult task of associating our self with others. This inter-association between an extreme variety of personalities and their individual state of beingness, gives us cause for perplexity at times. When we observe our many forms of social structure we are able to see that the core purpose of each of them is to allow people to get along with each other. In looking at these societies in light of the higher insights provided by idealists, altruistics, mystics, religionists and spiritual philosophers, it is evident that we must revisit our association with everything in general and have faith in the overall purposeful design of which we are each a part. From that higher, or supreme, perspective we get a glimpse of the fact of our role of siblings in the family of man.

Being able to intellectually grasp the concept of the “brotherhood of man” is not, however, the same as being able to personalize the concept. How, then, do we personalize it? The answer is really quite simple: we must learn to instinctively respond to our fellow man through the influence of our belief and faith that everything (which also means everyone) is a product of the “overall purposeful design.”

If we are able to see through the eyes of equality and fairness, we are better able to respect, honor and love our fellow man. To further personalize this outlook on social relationships, we harken back to our overall belief that we are part of all that is. Then it becomes a process in which we seek and learn to recognize that part of all that is, in our brothers and sisters.

When we are able to make that connection between our self and others, we then experience the reality of our connectedness. It is then that our awareness, coupled with our experience, creates a behavioral progression.

Our belief that there is a purpose along with our faith to live according to our belief provides us an opportunity to experience the truth. And truth is far more than mere fact, as faith is far more than mere belief. When you act in faith, you experience the truth.

Experiencing the truth of mankind's inter-connectedness and our connectedness to all that is, is just one form of contact with a higher reality.

Various forms of other contact, along with an awareness of a deeper and extended connectedness, spring forth from this basic realization. Next time we'll look at where this leads us. Meanwhile, a look at the offerings in this issue will afford many clues.

based representatives are authorized to promote or demote anyone! Each of us is accountable only to the Lord God within.. Thus you and we share a common task: to transcend the lesser self, to maintain spiritual clarity, and to always focus upon selfless, loving service. We all came divinely endowed with all that we truly need to ascend into ever more glorious states of being; an eternal divine spirit, a heart, and freedom of choice. For this reason we do not encourage dependency upon outer technologies, whether spiritual or material. To ascend, you need only a pure heart filled with the love of God and shared with yourfellows.

12. Our major teaching and message is spiritual, focusing upon the recognition, realization and embodying of the divine self. This is an individual task of spiritual infusion. For earth's humanity, this means the integration of the energies of the soul and high self into the physical, emotional and mental bodies and trascending from the third and fourth dimension into the fifth dimension of the Adam Kadmon, or state of perfected Manhood. This is accomplished by gradually training oneself to vibrate at only the highest levels of pure love and light. We continue in a similar manner at cosmic levels. The process is ongoing.

13, The administrative levels of the Ashtar Command function from divine and cosmic dimensions and can best be understood as celestial or angelic in nature. At these levels we function as Councils of Light, collectives of divine purpose and holy endeavour.

14. The Ashtar Command is composed of personnel representing many dimensions, civilizations and points of cosmic origin. We have thousands of Earth-based and Earth-born representatives here as volunteers to assist with the planetary ascension. We have commanders, walk-ins and embodied rays of some of the commanders who function often from oversoul levels. Our major characteristics are joyous service, serenity, radiance and, above all else, goodwill and love.

There are many extraterrestrial civilizations visiting and observing earth during its transformation and ascension. Some are curious observers, some genetic scientists gathering data, some scientific survey teams and others of various degrees of nonascended evolvement. Any being that brings in energies of fear, foreboding, depression or coercion is not aligned with the Ashtar Command! Our energy signature is always one of love.

We play no part whatsoever in scenarios of abduction, implantation, manipulation, intimidation or any type of mental control. We are not fortune tellers, nor will we ever tell you what you must or should do. We may point out areas where your service could be useful, if you so choose. Always and ever we honor your free will and right to choose to live your own life in your own manner. Likewise, we place no judgment upon what you do. That is between you and God. We don't keep score.

15. Trust yourself if you would interact with us. Trust your intuitive inner knowing, for we communicate through telethought transmissions or telepathic impression.

17. We send you messages of love and wisdom via crop circles or snow and ice circles. We also form messages within your skies. These will continue and increase until your planet realizes that you are not alone, that you are loved and part of a plan more beautiful and wondrous than you could have ever imagined.

In summation, you may know us as the Christ forces on a mission of love. We are the celestial heralds of the good news of God's love for all creation and of the entering of your world into an era of peace and goodwill for all.

With blessings, we are the Ashtar Command. Adonia

EXPLORER ENDNOTES

Let's see now ....who are all of these celestial connectors and what are their missions?

The Ascended Masters are a collective of the greatest spiritual personalities in the universe, assembled to write a new Bible made up of the energies of the Archangels, Cosmic Beings, and themselves. They unveil mysteries and teach essential spiritual lessons.

The Ashtar Command is comprised of millions of starships and personnel, here to assist our planet and humanity in planetary-wide cleansing and polar realignment. They work for The Christ.

The Unixtron Revelation is a new message from Christ Michael of Nabadon, aka Jesus of Nazareth and the Planet Urantia, aka Earth. We are invited to be assistants in the voluntary, loving and unconditional service required on a planet of Light and Life.

Valerie Donner of The Ground Crew helps human Lightworkers recognize who they are and their roles in shaping spiritual energies on the planet. She attunes to her celestial illuminations and shares them.

The Teaching Mission is anchored in the Urantia Papers, as the Fifth Epochal Revelation to our planet. Groups nationwide meet regularly with a faculty of teachers, mostly ascending personalities, but also including Machiventa and other Melchizedeks, Abraham and Christ Michael, aka Jesus.

The Pleiadians are highly advanced personalities who serve as goodwill ambassadors throughout the universe. Lucky us, they are here to help in times of epochal change, providing their insights and helping Starseeds among our human populace awaken to their celestial destiny and Pleiadian ancestories. Starseeds from The Pleiades helped populate the planet eons ago.

The Planetary Activation Organization works with the Galactic Federation, which is preparing us for our First Contact! with extraterrestrial life, and with their organization of planetary governments. Here is where we get news of planetary changes, and information on how to prepare ourselves for a new reality.

Much of Celestial Contact at 2000 is in the hands of humans like Rene Mueller, who covers the planet with Spirit Web and helps us explore many of these burgeoning spiritual energies. The World Wide Web is vibrant with a plethora of spiritual networking, and movements both simple and profound, old and new spiritual sharings.

And so very much of Celestial Contact is the personal bonding of human to God Force, as Allen Wolf has lovingly described. In truth, the very essence of spiritual and celestial contact is in our own personal and unique relationship with God, and our resulting service to the ideals of Truth, Beauty and Goodness. Saul at Tarsus, Allen Wolf and many humans through the ages have been touched by powerful celestial contacts that literally changed their lives. This one-on-one contact with spiritual power and the opportunity to carry forward the relationship is certainly the most important part of celestial contact in any time.

Also in this issue, Gerdean (Karen O'Dell) has sampled and keynoted our quest by exploring the whole idea and some of the history of celestial contact. Angus Bowen has given us a cosmic citizenship perspective, and we've heard the first-ever unique perceptions of a "Midwayer," our much-valued editorial board member, Gorman.

So .... does it all fit together into your idea of a Divine Tapestry, dear reader? Each seems to have its niche in these momentous times. It is a Grand Universe of Universes, after all, and there are a myriad of celestial and evolving personalities over this vast celestial landscape.

The Urantia Papers tell us that the Lucifer Rebellion, the Bible's "War in the Heavens," resulted in a quarantine for our planet and more than 30 others. The Teaching Mission celestials say that the rebellion is finally adjudicated, the quarantine lifted, and incremental openings of spiritual energies beginning to uplift the planet -- one human soul at a time -- institutions being changed from within to reflect higher spiritual values. They call it The Correcting Time.

Indeed, as the Pleiadians say, these are exciting times here, and many universe personalities want to be part of it. Whether they are broadcasting spiritual perspectives from afar through attuned humans, or whether they are in a fleet of spaceships or in the mindal energies helping us to self-actualize or new energy circuits opened through the Stillness, we can all feel privileged to be a part of this history. These are remarkable, quickening times that will move us toward a new era of Light and Life.

While you meditate, be assured that we're working on new ways to "Explore the Spiritual Universe" and will share our discoveries in Issue #9.

Jim Cleveland
