COMMUNICATION

Volcano, Hawaii - #35

Spiritual sculptors of cosmic destiny,

Your conscious eagerness to absorb divine guidance has been perceived with loving regard. Continue your diligence in attentiveness, and your fraternal vista will reveal itself in a prism of opportunity.

Be aware that loving communication is the cornerstone of all positive change and can assume many forms. Genuine communion with your sisters and brothers acquires relevancy of expression through service and action, yet your demeanor is the essential key of interchange in all encounters.

Your communication of love will penetrate the potential of others and impart insight, reveal hope, and disclose the authentic energy of divine reality. Always remember that you are a living circuit of continual projection, and your pursuit of spiritual grace will ensure that emissions of devout wisdom, concurrent with the Father's will, will be perceived by others. Commune with sincerity and you will radiate tender arrows of awareness that will pierce the gentle targets of significance that will engender enlightenment. Be zealous communicators of divine truth, and this will eventualize a harmonious coexistence of enormous wonder that will enable others to recognize their superlative eternal career toward our communal rapture of divinity.
